France Backs Britain In League Support Social Credit M.P.P.'s Sanctions Against Italy Not Part of Laval's Geneva Plan Give Leader Free Hand In Launching Ministry

French Government Decides to Stand With Britain at League's Ethiopia Session, But Will Oppose Rigid Interpretation of Covenant's Provisions As Threatening General War

Italian Move Called 'Colonial' Expedition

Canadian Press from Havas
Paris, Aug. 28.—France will back Great Britain in support of the League of Nations covenant in the Italo-Ethiopian crisis, but will oppose too rigid interpretation of its provisions as likely to be viewed by Italy as an act of hostility, the cabinet decided in an emergency session this afternoon.

Premier Mussolini's recent vehement statements that "sanctions mean war" led to the feeling here that if an attempt were made to adhere absolutely to the letter of the covenant all hope of peaceful settlement would be lost.

FREE HAND

No rigid instructions for the French delegation to the League Council's meeting in Geneva next Wednesday were drawn up, the cabinet feeling it would be better to leave to Premier Laval and his colleagues considerable freedom to deal with situations as they may arise.

BREEZE HALTS HEAT RECORD

Thermometer Registers 88 Degrees on Gonzales Hill; Hotter in Town

The mercury climbed within two degrees of a record for the year to-day. The thermometer on Gonzales Hill registered eighty-eight degrees at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Shortly afterwards a wind blew off the sea and the temperature dropped fourteen degrees to seventy-four. For a time it looked as though a new record would be set.

Down town the heat was even greater. A thermometer in the sun at Asquith's drug store on the corner of Fort and Cook Streets registered 124 degrees, which is said to be close to a record for even this high-climbing mercury.

BRITISH ARMY HEADS ON CALL

Members of Council Instructed to Remain in London So Sessions Possible

Associated Press
London, Aug. 28.—The War Office, a military source stated to-day, has ordered all senior members of the Army Council to remain in the vicinity of London and to take no more holidays until further notice.

No official statement was issued concerning the order, and in foreign military quarters it was considered purely as a precautionary nature.

It was rumored the army is considering the cancellation of leave of all officers, but no such action has been taken.

Alameda, Calif., Aug. 28 (Associated Press).—The flying clipper arrived here from Honolulu at 10:35 this forenoon, completing its first round-trip exploratory commercial flight of approximately 10,000 miles to Wake Island in the Pacific.

The big flying boat, making its third flight from Honolulu to the mainland, completed the final leg of 2,400 miles in 17 hours and 26 minutes.

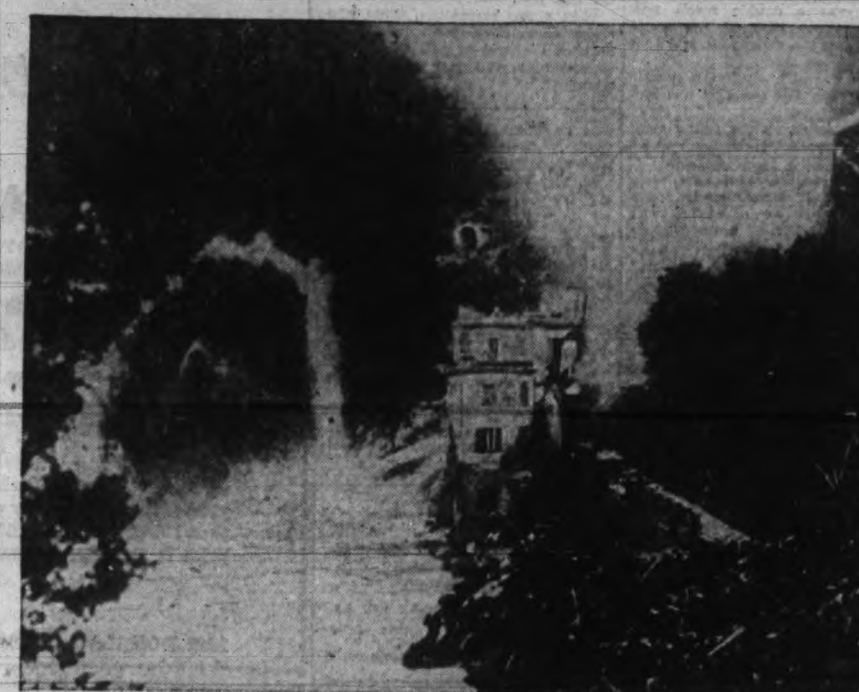

Passengers Are Taken Off Grounded Craft

Sixty-four Removed From Ferry Hibou, on Rocks in St. Lawrence River Near Cape Vincent, N.Y.

Associated Press
Cape Vincent, N.Y., Aug. 28.—Sixty-four passengers were removed at daylight to-day from the ferryboat Hibou, which ran aground in the St. Lawrence River about 8:30 yesterday evening while trying to dodge the full force of a storm.

The passengers spent the night on the vessel, but were reported not to have been in danger at any time. The Hibou is still aground.

CAMERA SHOWS ITALIAN DAM DISASTER

A large dam had collapsed and nearly 600 persons were drowning when this spectacular picture was taken in the Ovada Valley in Italy. Breaking of the 100-foot-high dam on Lake Orcinella released a torrent of water which swept down the steep slopes, wrecking the powerhouse (centre), striking another obstruction and spouting upward in a solid wave, then rolling on down the fertile valley to carry away bridges, destroy homes and inundate a town.

CITIES AFTER TAX RIGHTS

Special Committee Will Sit Before Municipalities' Convention

Financial relationships between the cities of British Columbia and the province is expected to be the main subject of discussion at the convention of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, which will open at Harrison Hot Springs September 11.

During the year many suggestions for a readjustment of the existing financial arrangements have been made, particularly with regard to the care of unemployed which many municipalities say should be taken out of their hands and transferred either to the provincial or federal government.

Demand for a new deal on the right to impose taxes is expected to be an outcome of the convention.

Frequently the provinces have argued that the provincial government has invaded the municipal field of taxation, and this argument has been particularly emphasized since the cities were called upon to bear extra social service costs.

To deal with these subjects a special committee will meet before the convention proper opens to have their recommendations in form to present to the main body. This committee consists of Alderman George Miller, Vancouver, chairman; Mayor David Leeming, Victoria; Mayor Fred Hume, New Westminster, and Reeve R. C. Macdonald, Coquitlam.

Newfoundlanders Hunt Coasts For Bodies of Sailors

JOHN HAMILTON'S GRAVE FOUND

Associated Press
Washington, Aug. 28.—The body of John Hamilton, member of the notorious John Dillinger gang, was found buried near Oswego, Illinois, to-day by G men.

Word was given at the Department of Justice in the late afternoon by J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the bureau of investigation. He said the body was badly decomposed.

Agents reported a belief Hamilton was probably killed in a battle with some of his colleagues during their hot chase of the Dillinger gang in the summer of 1934.

Their opinion was that the long-sought criminal met his end either in the battle which occurred near Little Bohemia, Wis., or at a subsequent battle near St. Paul, Minn.

TENTH TIME DANGEROUS

Nick Cavallieri, Cameraman Who Shoots Wild Animals, Here To-day

"Nine times out of ten these wild animals won't bother even looking at you. But the tenth time, look out," said Nick Cavallieri, famous roving cameraman who was in Victoria this morning after a trip to the jungles of the Far East with Frank Buck, author of the great animal book, "Bring 'em Back Alive."

With three other cameramen, Mr. Cavallieri was a passenger aboard the Ss. Empress of Canada which arrived at the Outer Wharf this morning from the Orient. The party boarded the liner at Hongkong and continued with her to Vancouver.

TO JOIN BOARD OF UNIVERSITY

Three Members of Senate Named to Serve With Governors

The three members of the Senate of the University of British Columbia who will also serve on the Board of Governors were announced to-day by Hon. G. M. Weir, Minister of Education.

They are Miss Annie B. Jamieson, B.A., of the Vancouver School Board; Mrs. J. W. deB. Farris, R.A., L.L.D., and Lieut.-Col. Sherwood Lett, B.A., B.C.L.

Six more governors will be appointed by the government to complete the board of nine of which President Klink and Chancellor Dr. R. E. McKechnie are ex-officio members.

Announcement of these names is expected to-morrow.

The board as formerly constituted consisted of Hon. Dennis Murphy, Mrs. M. M. Welsh, Dr. P. P. Patterson, R. L. Reid, K.C., Christopher Spencer, F. J. Burd, Judge J. M. Ellis, B. C. Nicholas and W. H. Malkin.

The readjustment follows amendments to the University of British Columbia Act passed at the last session of the Legislature.

Under the amendments the senate of the university was authorized to elect three of its members to the university board of governors.

Qualifications of the new governors were referred to by Dr. Weir this morning who mentioned incidentally that Lieut.-Colonel Lett provides the first instance of a graduate being elected to an administrative body of the university and also draws attention to the fact that the senate of the university is now a body of 12 members.

NEW PARTY RUMOR IN UNITED STATES

Associated Press
New York, Aug. 28.—A dispatch to The New York Times to-day from Charles R. Michael at Chicago quoted an unnamed prominent citizen returning from the home of William Randolph Hearst in California as saying an independent Democratic party was about to be launched.

It was said former Governor Joseph B. Ely of Massachusetts and former Budget Director Lewis W. Douglas might be running mates in 1936.

The dispatch named "Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state in the Wilson administration, as the leader of a revolt of Democrats from the New Deal and said definite plans of organization probably would be announced in October.

Alberta Bonds In U.S. Steady

Strengthening at New York; Losses at London Not Made Up

Associated Press
New York, Aug. 28.—A steadier undertone was reported to-day in province of Alberta bonds in the over-the-counter market, following their recent slump of five to seven points after the election victory of the Social Credit Party in that province.

Traders who follow the Canadian municipal bond market said obligations of the province had as yet shown no disposition to rally appreciably from their low, but that business, nearly at a standstill at times recently, was again being done in fair volume.

The spread between bid and asked prices, however, is still unusually wide. One of the most active issues, the Alberta 5's of 1942, is quoted 92 bid, 95 asked, and other issues are bid for on a comparable yield basis.

SLOW AT LONDON

London, Aug. 28.—Activity in Alberta bonds on the London Stock Exchange has slowed down. The only movement since Monday's close is a drop of two points in Alberta 5's.

Newly-elected Members Ask William Aberhart, Who Was Not Candidate, to Accept Lieut.-Governor's Invitation and to Find Seat in Legislature

House May Start Session Oct. 24

By J. F. HENDERSON, Canadian Press Staff Writer

Calgary, Aug. 28.—A caucus of sixty-three Social Credit M.P.P.'s-elect and candidates to-day endorsed William Aberhart, leader of the new Alberta party, and made it possible for him to step into the Premier's office next week. Mr. Aberhart was not a candidate in the election last week.

Coupled with the endorsement motion was a blanket order to Mr. Aberhart, giving him a free hand in the selection of his cabinet and offering him any seat he may select.

It would be three or four days before he would announce his cabinet, Mr. Aberhart said when the caucus adjourned at noon.

RESOLUTION FAVORED

Sponsored by J. W. Huggill, Calgary, and Rev. William Morrison, High River-Okotska, the caucus passed the following resolution:

"1. This meeting of members-elect to the provincial Legislature, being a substantial majority of the elected members, reaffirm their absolute confidence in William Aberhart as their leader.

TO ACCEPT INVITATION

"2. It is the unanimous wish of the members-elect that William Aberhart forthwith respond to the invitation of the Lieutenant-Governor of this province to call upon him and intimate his readiness and willingness to form a cabinet to carry on the administration of provincial affairs with himself as Premier and the duties of such other portfolios as he may see fit to assume.

"3. William Aberhart as leader and Premier-elect shall have an absolutely free hand in the selection of such persons as he deems necessary for the duties involved in the efficient administration of provincial affairs.

"4. The members-elect pledge themselves to facilitate, in any way that the Premier may deem necessary and desirable, the vacation of the seats needed upon the announcement by the Premier of his appointments."

BARON FACES LONDON TRIAL

Lord de Clifford, Charged With Manslaughter, May Go Before House of Lords

Canadian Press
Kingston, Eng., Aug. 28.—Baron de Clifford (Edward Southwell Russell), to-day was committed for trial on a charge of manslaughter arising from a motor car accident. Indications were he might seek trial by his peers, the House of Lords.

Baron de Clifford, son of an historic family whose lineage goes back to the thirteenth century, is a racing motorist and a son-in-law of the late Mrs. Kate Meyrick, night club queen, being twenty-sixth baron in the line of Douglas Hopkins, killed in a collision between his car and that of Lord de Clifford. The accident occurred on an open highway.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY

In addition to manslaughter, he is charged with dangerous driving and driving without due care and attention. The twenty-six-year old peer reserved his defence, after pleading not guilty. When the judge ordered him tried at the central criminal court (the Old Bailey) the prosecutor interjected, "Before the House of Lords, I think."

Whether the trial proceeds before the House of Lords depends on whether the prosecutor decides to proceed with the manslaughter count, if he does not, the minor courts would be heard before the Old Bailey. The last comparable House of Lords trial of a peer was in 1901, when the trial for the bigamous marriage of the Earl of Russell to Mollie Cook in Nevada shocked Victorians.

Simplification of Canada's Laws Urged

Bar Association, Opening Convention in Winnipeg, Hears I. Pitblado, K.C., President, Advocate Progressive Changes

By SAM G. ROSS
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Winnipeg, Aug. 28.—Simplification and clarification of the law, with uniformity of legislation and court decisions, was urged by Isaac Pitblado, K.C., Winnipeg, in his presidential address at the twenty-first annual convention of the Canadian Bar Association here to-day.

Pleading for a "united Canada," Mr. Pitblado frowned on sectionalism, sectarianism and petty provincial jealousies and urged lawyers to watch closely the "great economic changes taking place in our body politic."

"New laws and regulations of a drastic character appear every day," the president told the opening session of the convention, which is attended by noted lawyers from all parts of the Dominion. All thoughtful leaders of the bar should give attention to the changes, he said.

Dr. A. Siegfried Says U.S. Will Standardize and Europe Provide Craftsmanship

A concise picture of the origins, course and possible developments of the European economic crisis was painted yesterday by Dr. Andre Siegfried, professor of political economy at the College de France, member of the French Institute and author of eleven books on economy, of which seven have been translated into English.

Dr. Siegfried spoke in the hall room of the Empress Hotel before a joint luncheon of 100 members of the Canadian and Kiwanis clubs and some fifty ladies.

"It is impossible to speak to-day without using the word crisis or depression," he said.

The causes of this crisis could be divided into three.

The first was the liquidation of the war, which the world believed completed in 1921, and which in reality was only at its full strength now. During the war manufactures had increased enormously. When peace came the world's capacity of production was immeasurably greater than its power of consumption.

The second was the fact that there was a cycle of crises, known to all economists, a cycle something like a temperature chart.

The third was the shifting of the world's economic centre of gravity. Europe was challenged as the economic centre of the world after centuries of supremacy, and the movement of control meant trouble not only to the European nations, but to the rest of the world also.

Dr. Siegfried compared the position of Europe in the world at the end of the nineteenth century and now.

NINETEENTH CENTURY

At the end of the last century, he said, the superiority of Europe was challenged nowhere in the world.

European capital was required everywhere for development. The experts who carried out that development were European. Every ship's engineer was a Scotchman, almost every mining engineer was a Frenchman.

The world of the nineteenth century was an international world, with an equilibrium between the manufacturers of Europe and the raw products of the rest.

"It was in reality a British commercial society, led by British principles and by the greatest gift of Britain to the world, the lesson of fair play, good credit, fair trade and respect for individuality," he said.

"In those days there was security, in currencies. Europe thought those conditions would endure — now this security has disappeared."

Europe used to be the workshop of the world, therefore Europe allowed its manufacturers to grow to a dangerous point.

"This crisis came possibly from the war — the war at any rate hastened its development — but if there had been no war I believe the same evolution would have taken place," he said.

DOUBLE REVOLT
There was a double revolt now against Europe; that of the white races outside the metropolis, and that of the colored races.

Europe was of necessity an exporting continent. The question was how it was to compete.

Competition from the yellow races was that of peoples with lower wages — not necessarily lower standards of living — and that of the outer white races, especially the American continent, was that of a nation with higher wages — though not necessarily a higher standard of living — and the power of mass production.

Europe's superiority to these other races was in its creative genius. The eastern races were great copyists, but they had no inventive or creative spirit. The United States had inventiveness, but no creative spirit, and had lost the spirit of craftsmanship which persisted in Europe.

NEW DIVISION
Dr. Siegfried envisaged a new division of labor between the white races of the world.

He foresaw that the United States would become more and more specialized in the production of standardized products of high quality and in large quantity, while Europe would specialize in every product requiring the individual skill and craftsmanship of the working man and artistic creation.

The speaker was introduced by Ro-

Start Listing Voters Shortly

Registrations For 1935 Civic Elections to Begin Next Tuesday

Registrations for this year's voters list will be accepted at the City Hall, starting next Tuesday, M. F. Hunter, city clerk, reported to-day. The names of voters will be taken up to the end of October.

Property owners are automatically registered on the lists, as are licensees whose names were on the rolls last year and who have preserved their good standing.

Those whose names appeared on the list under the householder qualification last year will stay on the roll provided they pay both road and poll tax this year.

With a few exceptions, those who claim exemptions from either or both of the road or poll taxes must register again this year to enjoy the franchise.

Wan MacKenzie, president of the Kiwanis Club, and thanked by Hon. G. M. Welr, Minister of Education. Herbert Anson, M.P.P., was chairman for the luncheon.

Frank Paulding, secretary of the local "Y," announced this morning.

The Speakers' Club of the "Y" was affiliated with the Toastmasters' International last year, but did not have a charter from the body.

The Toastmasters' International was founded in California, has branches in every major centre of the United States, and is spreading to England, Australia and New Zealand. There are two branches in Seattle, and it is planned that the Victoria group, which will this year be separate from the Speakers' Club, will hold occasional international meetings with the Puget Sound Toastmasters.

The new group will meet for supper at the "Y" building every Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock. It offers a new type of training in public speaking, along more informal lines than the regular classes. The new group will get under way early in October.

OTHER CLASSES
This winter will be the fullest and most diversified yet for the "Y" public speaking activities.

The regular public speaking class for new students will be held each Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock starting September 24.

The Speakers' Club will meet each Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, beginning in October. This year the club will take an advanced course in public speaking especially prepared by Mr. Paulding. Last year they studied miscellaneous subjects from the Y.M.C.A. syllabus.

A new activity for the "Y" as far as public speaking is concerned will be the formation of a ladies' class, to be personally supervised by Mr. Paulding. The class will meet at 8 o'clock on Thursdays.

If the attendance at the class for new students warrants, a second class will be instituted, probably meeting on Monday evenings.

To Segregate Unemployables

B.C. Labor Department Will Determine Welfare Cases

While the total of persons on relief in British Columbia in July was 30,970 below the peak month of February, there were 23,743 on the list last month.

That total was 3,197 less than the total for July last year, the monthly figures released by the relief branch of the Department of Labor to-day show.

The total of 23,743 is made up of 16,581 heads of families with 49,324 dependents, 14,906 single men and 2,922 in national defence camps. In July of last year the total on relief was 26,940. In August, 1934, it was 29,067.

Starting in October a serious effort will be made to segregate unemployed from unemployable throughout the province.

It is generally recognized that on the relief lists there are thousands who will probably never be able again to take their place in the labor market.

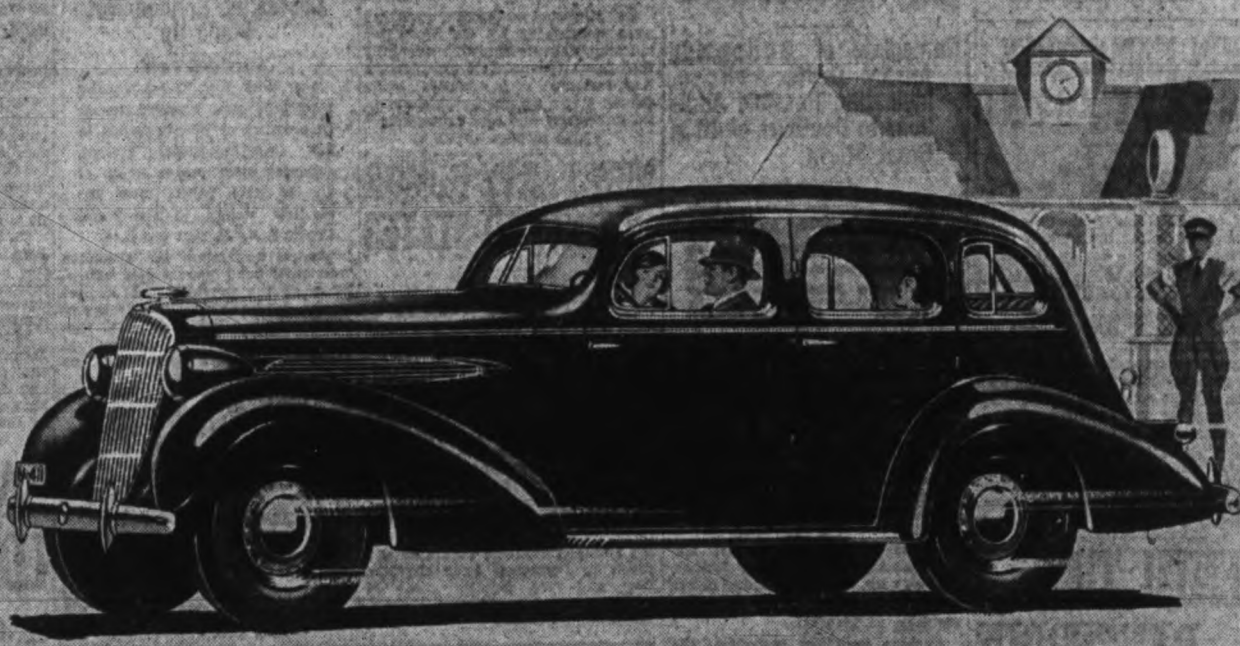

Relief recipients will be examined as to their work capabilities and on the basis of these inquiries it will be determined how many should be

Garibaldi Tells Italy's Plans

Grandson of Liberator Says His Country Ready to Fight Britain

St. Petersburg, Fla., Aug. 28.—Gen. Giuseppe Garibaldi, grandson of the famous Italian liberator, said in an interview here yesterday that his country's difficulties with Ethiopia "are of secondary importance" as compared to the "real trouble that will arise soon between Italy, Great Britain and France."

"Facing the prediction of what he termed a 'snowdown on the Mediterranean,' the former Italian soldier said:

"Great Britain can no longer lay claim to the title of controller of the Mediterranean, and she fears Italy's convenient position and powerful fighting forces."

Asked what he considered the proper steps for his country to take in her needs for new lands, Garibaldi answered unhesitatingly: "Fight the British in the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan and the French in Tunisia."

He said Italy was determined to gain lands in Africa and that nothing could stop her, adding that she had been wronged in her attempts to ob-

SASKATCHEWAN IS TO REFUND

Regina, Aug. 28.—Refunding of $9,000,000 of Saskatchewan debentures will be undertaken within the next year, according to Premier Gardiner. It is expected the province will call for bids at a 3½ per cent rate. Interest rates on the debentures to be refinanced range from 4 to 6 per cent.

Saskatchewan's public debt is now approximately $164,000,000, plus the unpaid accounts, according to a statement released yesterday by the Premier, who is also provincial treasurer. The unpaid debts, which he could not estimate, but which he admitted "would be heavy at this time of the year," will run well into the millions.

Louisiana "Dictatorship" Expected to Be Investigated By U.S. House Committee

Washington, Aug. 28.—An investigation of Senator Huey Long's Louisiana "dictatorship" was reported today to be a major purpose of an inquiry voted by the Democratic House of Representatives just before adjournment at midnight Monday.

Informed representatives further said authority for the investigation was granted by House administration leaders on promptings of members from Louisiana who are opposed to Long and his political control of the state.

The investigating resolution slipped through the House without one word of protest. Members considered it the routine resolution adopted automatically every two years—setting up a committee of five to investigate and report on 1936 campaign expenditures by candidates for the House.

There is a new clause, however, and some representatives said privately this sweeping power would authorize the committee to determine whether or not Louisiana under Long's political organization has a "Republican form of government as guaranteed by the constitution."

Speaker J. W. Byrnes of the House said he planned to name the committee at once.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The future of U.S. Senator Huey P. Long, Louisiana Democrat, became a subject of renewed speculation today as the capital heard a prediction that Long is dead politically.

The prediction came from Representative C. A. Woodrum, Virginia Democrat, who declared that in the filibuster with which Long wound up session of Congress Monday night, the senator was trapped and led to the "executioner's block by his colleagues in the Senate."

Long's filibuster defeated a $102,000,000 appropriations measure. Woodrum argued that Long had made many enemies because the bill contained funds to start such programmes as social security, coal regulation and railroad pensions.

The six-foot Perry found difficulty in handling the lowly wheelbarrow and at one time lost control, spilling the wheelbarrow. Perry was wearing a white shirt and sported a cane, collected a bet from Percy Bennett—in a wheelbarrow.

Perry had wagered Frenchy the Social Crediters would not be successful in the election.

BEE'S STING CAUSES DEATH OF MAN

Cloverdale, B.C., Aug. 28.—A bee's sting caused the death of Porter Holley, forty-two-year-old farm laborer, according to Dr. B. B. Marr of Langley. Holley was working for B. Cambray, near here, when he was stung, and died within five minutes.

Dr. Marr said shock and the poison are very susceptible, caused death.

Holley came to British Columbia from Ontario thirteen years ago and for a time was a member of the Vancouver police department.

C.N.R. REVENUE SHOWS INCREASE

Montreal, Aug. 28.—Operating revenues of the Canadian National Railway for the first seven months of the year increased $1,539,002 over the corresponding period of 1934, according to figures released today.

Seven months' revenues were $95,029,714 compared with $93,490,712 for the same period in 1934. Net revenue, however, was $3,300,445, a decrease of $1,766,540 for the first seven months compared with $5,066,985 in 1934.

Operating expenses rose $3,306,232 from $88,423,037 to $91,729,269. Operating revenues for July were $14,886,392, an increase of $893,117 compared with $13,993,275 in July, 1934. Operating expenses at $13,705,011 rose $460,181 from $3,304,830 in July, 1934, leaving net revenue of $1,121,381, a gain of $432,936 against $688,445 in July last year.

WM. M. JESSOP DIES IN BOSTON

Boston, Aug. 28.—William M. Jessop, prominent for more than twenty years in refugee relief and educational work in the Far East, died yesterday following two years' illness. He was sixty-four.

Born in England, he became a Y.M.C.A. secretary in several cities. He was national foreign work secretary of the Canadian Y.M.C.A. for two years.

INVESTMENTS FOR PROVINCE

Hon. H. G. Perry, Returning From London, Predicts New Businesses For B.C.

Vancouver, Aug. 28.—Confidential information concerning a number of projected investments of substantial amounts in British Columbia was given to Hon. H. G. Perry, Speaker of the Legislature, and member for Port George, before he left London, he said, following his arrival here yesterday.

Mr. Perry represented the Provincial Legislature at the Empire Parliamentary Association meeting.

He has already been in communication with Premier Pattullo concerning prospective British investments, and will give further information to the government when he goes to Victoria at the end of the week.

The sessions of the Empire Parliamentary Association were held behind closed doors, but Mr. Perry said the address of Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, was of vital importance to western Canada and British Columbia. He did not enlarge on the matter of the address.

While there was no public opinion in Great Britain favorable to war, said Mr. Perry, the strong stand taken by Labor for imposition of League sanctions had led the British government into policies which threatened British-Italian relations.

England had greatly changed (and for the better) since he was last there, said Mr. Perry, the strong stand taken by Labor for imposition of League sanctions had led the British government into policies which threatened British-Italian relations.

ABDUCTORS' PLOT FAILED

Woman Foiled Gang Which Tried to Seize S. Bronfman in Montreal in 1931

By D. E. BURRITT
Canadian Press Staff Writer

London, Ont., Aug. 28.—Daring plans to seize and hold Sam Bronfman, Montreal distiller, for ransom were ruined by a woman.

Revelation that plans had been made to kidnap Bronfman back in 1931 was made in court here, Monday, by Michael McCordell, confessed kidnapper of John S. Labatt.

Details of the plans, however, were disclosed from an official source only today.

It was in 1931 when a group of seven Detroit and Chicago hoodlums were seeking to stage a kidnapping in Canada, John Labatt, London brewer, and Bronfman, were decided on as the victims. Labatt was ill and plans to abduct him were abandoned.

The seven men, two of whom are now dead from police and gangster bullets, while two others are serving long prison terms in the United States, proceeded on the Bronfman quest in two cars.

In Toronto three of them were taken into custody as suspects. The second car, containing sub-machine guns, had been left in a parking lot, and one of the men held by police carried the parking ticket. If, while police were searching clothing of the suspects they found the ticket, the game was over.

But police did not find it. The man holding it, folded it and placed it in his mouth with a stick of gum. He digested the cardboard.

The men were released. They joined their accomplices and the gang continued to Montreal.

For a couple of days they sought the distiller and watched his home. They were getting ready to seize him and cross the border.

But they celebrated at night. In their hotel they drank heavily. One of the ringleaders sought companionship of a woman in another room. He pretended he was a plainclothesman and forced his way into her room.

He had only left her room a few minutes when police pounced on him and charged him with impersonating an officer. But he was alone at the time. The rest of the gang, afraid he would talk, fled.

But he did not talk and details of the story were disclosed by one in a reminiscence with a police officer who had trailed part of the gang halfway across the continent.

NO COMPENSATION
Ottawa, Aug. 28 (Canadian Press).—Little likelihood exists of any compensation being paid to Kingston P. "Piccolo Pete" Murray of Covington, Ky., for the time he spent in jail as a suspect in the kidnapping of John Labatt, London brewer, according to a statement here.

All previous pleas of this nature have failed.

"Piccolo Pete" left Canada yesterday evening through Windsor for his home in Kentucky after being absolved of implication in the Labatt kidnapping by the confession of Michael McCordell.

RACIAL TESTS FOR CANADA

Institute of Human Relations at Williamstown, Mass., Hears of Gaps

Williamstown, Mass., Aug. 28.—Canada's "problems" of bi-lingualism, religion and a dual system of civil law were discussed at the Institute of Human Relations here today by two Canadians.

Henry Somerville, editor of The Catholic Register of Toronto, represented the Catholic view and Rev. G. E. Silcox, secretary of the Social Service Council of Canada, spoke for the Protestants.

Mr. Silcox said the French-speaking Catholic and the English-speaking Protestant question has been a problem for "nearly 200 years, and has complicated the infinitely difficult task which confronts, even today, 10,000,000 people who are seeking to settle and develop half a continent."

Canada was faced with the problem of bi-lingualism, a dual system of civil law and the religious problem, he said.

WHAT WE CAN LEARN
Williamstown, Mass., Aug. 28.—Religious differences in Canada are more a unifying factor than anything else, the Institute of Human Relations was told today by Henry Somerville of Toronto, editor of The Catholic Register.

He declared in the course of roundtable debate on "What We Can Learn From Canada," were more troublesome.

"You will generally find when there is apparent strife between religious bodies to the detriment of the body politic there are other antagonizing factors—racial, political or economic," he said. "Canada's great national problem arises out of the racial division between French and English, using the word English for all except the French."

It was a tremendous task to keep in one political allegiance on terms of equality two races so entirely different in mentality as the French-Canadians and the British, he continued.

TWO CULTURES
"Neither race wants to fuse with the other. We have got to have two languages, two cultures, two souls in one body. The French hold the province of Quebec, and wherever they go through the remainder of Canada they go nearly always in groups and they aim to have their own schools from the primary grades to the university. Generally speaking, they succeed in realizing their aims despite enormous forces against them. They have against them not only the Anglicizing influences of Canada, but the Americanizing influences of this northern continent. They do not succeed by suavity. They cause friction. They appear to other people to be fanatical. Canada has to make the best of the situation."

LANGUAGE DIFFERENCES
The Catholic Church in Canada has more trouble than the nation itself from this factor of racial difference. Practically all the French-Canadians are Catholics, but we English, Irish and Scotch Catholics do not find French irregular verbs any less irregular than they are to our Protestant fellow countrymen.

The English-speaking Catholics of Canada, sympathizing with the French in religion but in secular matters aligned broadly with the Protestants, hold a mediating position not a very grateful position, but a useful one from the national viewpoint, he added.

"If the racial lines of division in Canada were always the same as the religious lines, I would have little confidence in the national unity, but as things are, the religious differences are a nationally unifying factor."

C.C.F. Secretary Loses School

M. J. Coldwell Dismissed By Regina Public School Board

Regina, Aug. 28.—M. J. Coldwell, Saskatchewan Co-operative Commonwealth Federation leader, was dismissed from the staff of the Regina public school board by a motion passed at the regular meeting of the board yesterday evening which terminates his contract September 30.

Reasons for the termination of the contract will be attached in the letter which the secretary will send to Mr. Coldwell.

Until a year ago, Mr. Coldwell was principal of the Thomson School here.

DECLARED UNFAIR
Saskatoon, Aug. 28 (Canadian Press).—"I feel the action of the board is grossly unfair, although its decision to dismiss me does not come unexpectedly," M. J. Coldwell, Co-operative Commonwealth Federation national secretary and Saskatchewan leader, said when informed he had been discharged as principal of a Regina public school because he had not agreed to return to his duties as provided in an agreement he made with the school board last year.

He made the agreement when applying for a year's leave of absence to contest the Roostown-Biggar constituency for the C.C.F. Party. Mr. Coldwell stated the leave of absence he had been granted "was clearly to cover the election period."

FOUNDRY LEADER DIES
Toronto, Aug. 28 (Canadian Press).—B. H. Johnson of Philadelphia, vice-president of the American Foundrymen's Association, died yesterday in a Toronto hospital. Mr. Johnson, who came to Toronto last week to attend the association's convention, was stricken with pneumonia before the sessions began but was re-elected to the vice-presidency.

SUEZ CANAL CONTROL

THE STATUS OF THE SUEZ CANAL
 Looks as an important factor in the present international crisis. The legal position of Great Britain in regard to its control and its use should there be war, has been set out in the authoritative Law Times of London.

Under the Convention of Constantinople, 1888, signed by nine powers, it was stipulated that the canal should be open in time of war as well as in peace to the warships and merchant vessels of all nations, and that it should never be blockaded. It is required that belligerent men-of-war using it must pass through without delay, remaining in the canal or its ports not longer than twenty-four hours, except in case of absolute necessity. Each of the contracting parties may keep two war vessels at Port Said or Suez, but this privilege it loses if it goes to war.

Thus, as The Law Times sets out the position, "the canal is by treaty open. The Ottoman Empire and its rights have disappeared and the canal is certainly by inference among the matters which the British government 'reserved' when she withdrew her protectorate over Egypt. She is therefore still the protecting power as far as the canal is concerned."

With such a background of history, the freedom of the canal has become of vital importance to one of the hypothetical belligerents. But, as The Law Times points out, "both are signatories of the Kellogg Pact, and if one declares war in violation of the pact she should not complain if the contracting power closed the canal. He who appeals to treaties must respect them."

That a mandate should be given to Britain as the Protecting Power to close the canal to belligerent ships and armed force, is a suggestion advanced by The Law Times article for the Council of the League of Nations. "If accepted," it says, "it would place the canal and its controllers in a new and honorable role as guardians of the world's peace."

IN ABERHART'S BOSOM

BY A SOMEWHAT GRIM COINCIDENCE.
 At the very moment when Alberta is getting ready to abolish poverty almost overnight, it is revealed by official figures that more transient and destitute people than ever are pouring westward from Alberta into British Columbia.

Apparently this tide has never stopped since the beginning of the depression. In July of this year there were 1,800 more transients on relief here than in the same month a year ago. Meanwhile, when some of the transients from the prairies who were here already tried to "ride the rods" back and get jobs in the harvest, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, who enforce law in Alberta, arrested them at the international boundary in such numbers that the jails of this province are filled to overflowing. If we do not keep Alberta's unemployed here on the dole, apparently we must keep them in jail, which is more expensive and more demoralizing.

To all the protests of British Columbia on this score the Bennett government is deaf. For the moment there seems to be nothing for us to do but pay the bill. But unless the Alberta election was a "crucel hoax" as Mr. G. G. McGeer says, and as we strongly suspect, our troubles with our neighbor's unemployed should soon be over. In providing a monthly dividend of Social Credit for the people of Alberta, Mr. Aberhart surely can not overlook those Albertans who happen to be out of their own province for the time being. The prairie unemployed can go home now and share in the blessings of the new economy which is to provide something for nothing at a minimum rate of $25 per month.

If the Albertans now in British Columbia really believe with their home folk that Mr. Aberhart can do these things, we may expect the westward tide to stop suddenly and flow backward through the Rockies down to the plains. Perhaps, indeed, it has begun already, but we have not heard of it yet.

Alas, we doubt that the Alberta people who have found sanctuary in British Columbia will risk leaving it until the first dividends of Social Credit are declared. They will probably feel safer for the moment at least in this province, for all its economic orthodoxy, than in Aberhart's bosom. And we shall pay for them, not in Social Credit, but in hard-earned cash.

ADVANCE AGAINST CANCER

 when Professor Blair Bell of the University of Liverpool informed the medical world that his lead treatment had definitely "placed the solution of the cancer problem within grasp, if indeed it has not already been accomplished." Five years later the medical world was not so sure of it. Now, The New York Times reports Dr. A. E. Osterberg, Dr. J. A. Bargen and Dr. B. T. Horton of the Mayo Clinic have informed the American Chemical Society that more can be said for lead therapy than the skeptics think.

It is explained that malignant tumors collect more lead than normal tissues and either die or stop growing. But the doses must be large enough to bring about acute lead poisoning. The injection of calcium enables healthy tissues to throw out the lead, but without having much effect on the lead held in the tumors, thus obviating death to the patient from lead intoxication. Out of eighty-five sufferers who were beyond surgical or other aid and who were treated by the lead-poisoning method, fourteen were regarded as cured, in the sense that there was no recurrence of growth after five years. However, half of the fourteen who were snatched from death, were reported as having been treated with X-rays and radium with effects that could not be evaluated. This leaves only seven, the saving of whose lives could be definitely attributed to the lead treatment.

The Times reports the Mayo experimenters as claiming merely that "lead compounds offer some hope in the chemotherapy of cancer." The Mayo experimenters belong to a class of clinicians who believe that a "cure" must act only on the cancer cells. Whether lead and other metals actually have such a selective power, biologists are not convinced, despite the evidence that is presented. Indeed, study of lead therapy at the Memorial Hospital, New York, leads the specialists of that institution to an opposite conclusion.

Doubt is expressed whether this trial-and-error method of experimentation is likely to solve the cancer problem. It is suggested there may be a chemical cure for cancer, but it will not be found merely by following attractive clues. What is considered essential is a joining of forces of the physicist, cytologist, biologist and chemist, so that the attacks on all fronts may be unified.

GERMANY BACKING UP

THE OLD-FASHIONED, MEDIEVAL
 German type, which has done so much to discourage foreigners from becoming familiar with the German language, seems to be another thing which is coming back under Hitler.

After the war, Germany made a systematic effort to replace that old-fashioned, hard-to-read Gothic style of lettering with ordinary Roman letters, such as are used in other countries. The campaign made a great deal of headway, and it looked as if the way would at last be made easier for outsiders who wanted to get a reading acquaintance with German.

But now it develops that the old-fashioned type is "more German." Therefore, no good Nazi can stand for its replacement by a more modern, legible type face. Hence the old Gothic letters are coming back.

When blind nationalism cuts loose, little things like logic and convenience are very quickly tossed out of the window.

LESSON FOR GIGGLERS

A MINISTER IN A SMALL TOWN IN
 Missouri found the quiet of his Sunday morning services disturbed the other day by the repeated giggles of half a dozen young people who found each other's whispered remarks more interesting than the sermon. So, after church was over, he had the whole crew arrested on charges of disturbing religious worship, and the court imposed fines of $1 and costs.

Few ministers have ever gone to the lengths to which this gentleman went; but there must be dozens of ministers, school teachers and similarly-placed people who will have a whole-hearted fellow feeling for him.

The youngster whose parents have never bothered to tell him (or her) what an irritating thing the everlasting giggle is, pops up everywhere, and is invariably an unmitigated public nuisance. If a few more people had nerve enough to take action as this Missouri clergyman took, some of our public services, religious and otherwise, would run much more smoothly.

Major C. H. Douglas, the founder of the Social Credit system, says that the promise of twenty-five dollars a month to every bona-fide citizen of Alberta is "quite practicable." You know, when you come to think of it, there was a man named Asquith—who is now with his father—who was known for his famous phrase: "Wait and See."

International Labor in Europe to-day is talking about a general strike to prevent war between Ethiopia and Italy. Well, this would appear to be one time when action of this kind would seem justified. And who is really behind this prospective war, anyway?

This from Senator Huey Long—there is no need to explain who he is—"Whoever votes for Roosevelt or Hoover this coming election is asking for a free ticket to Hell." The only comment which comes to our mind at present is that when Huey gets there, there will be a . . . of a row.

Just Folks by Edgar A. Guest

"DON'T TROUBLE ME"

"Don't trouble me!" he used to say.
 "I'm busy now; run out and play."
 Oft when the youngster came to plead
 For help he sorely seemed to need
 He'd answer, ere he'd heard him through:
 "I've more important work to do."

"Don't trouble me!" when boys are small
 The phrase seems harmless after all.
 And what are children's doubts and cares
 Compared to man's supreme affairs?
 Why should a father bothered be
 By every simple childish plea?

Thus dodging trouble day by day
 This thoughtless father went his way.
 So long as undisturbed he stayed
 He never asked with whom he played,
 Or where his son had been, until
 Disaster came his blood to chill.

That father sits with anxious brow
 Beneath a weight of trouble now.
 He's bothered now by worries great,
 He wants to help, but it's too late!
 The aid that youngster needed so
 He should have given long ago.

 L'Evenement, Quebec

It would be hard to create parliamentary representation at McGill, and still more difficult for our French-Canadian universities. There are many French-Canadians who would be ideal representatives at Ottawa but would they be elected? It is possible that if our universities were called upon to elect members, mediocrity would triumph there more easily than elsewhere. It is a good idea, but the time is not ripe yet.

DAYLIGHT SAVING

To the Editor:—What a pleasure it would be these wonderfully mild evenings to have the extra hour of daylight which daylight saving would provide. I hope that those who so stoutly opposed Alderman Willis's move earlier in the year will see their folly and join forces next year with its advocates to swing the City Council in its favor.

Here's hoping 1936 won't pass without daylight saving.

OFFICE SLAVE.

IT'S GOOD TO HOPE

To the Editor:—Summer has come late this year, and perhaps it will drive home the point raised earlier in the year on the subject of daylight saving.

Now that the first really consistent good weather of the season has arrived, we find that it is already getting dark by 7 o'clock.

The extra hour of sunlight which would be given us by daylight saving would be an immeasurable boon to all who work in stores and offices, especially to those whose hours of work do not end until 6 o'clock, and who now have barely an hour in which to enjoy the warm weather and sunshine.

To the Sports Editor:—May we, through the medium of your newspaper, convey our thanks and appreciation to the many people who contributed towards the success of cricket week.

We are indebted to the ladies who so capably attended to the refreshments and to those who generously helped to supply them.

We would also express our appreciation for the company of the many spectators who daily visited the cricket matches and registered their interest in this greatest of British sports.

VICTORIA ON THE AIR MAP

To the Editor:—We are pleased to note by the news in your paper last week that the city has taken up the question of an airport again after a long silence.

Victoria has lost a lot of time and a great amount of money through having no legitimate airport for land planes.

Victoria was the first international airport carrying mail and passengers, I believe, in the whole North American Continent. Through the loss of its first real passenger ship it seemed to get cold feet. After this loss Lansdowne Airport just dilled along and then died through somebody who had a bright idea of selling to the people a $240,000 airport somewhere else, and had the "powers to be" condemn the Lansdowne field before they put the other field up to the people. There was not a chance in the world of selling the new site, and the people turned it down, as they rightly should have done, and we were left without an airport.

The federal government, represented by its district inspector in British Columbia, made us suffer for our sins, and locally-owned planes have been breaking the laws every day for daring to land at their own home town, and have been continually in dire peril of being grounded for such acts.

A NOVEL SOLUTION

To the Editor:—You know, we don't need to throw up our hands despairingly and resign ourselves to being embroiled in the coming Italo-Ethiopian conflict. In fact, there is a very sure way of preventing war. By the League of Nations? Oh, no. Those pot-bellied pacifists can do nothing with mere words. Really, words are not needed at all. Battleships? Bombing planes? Nothing so complicated. Nothing so highbrow. Nothing so ethical. Just one fat man, who is at present trying to gnaw his way out of San Quentin or Sing-Sing, or what have you, (I'm not up on prisons), I mean that charming gentleman and benefactor of mankind, Al Capone, who so artistically obliterated altogether some 300 noxious compatriots who had the gall to compete with his humanitarian hijackidnapbottlegging.

There is one way President Roosevelt could ensure getting the popular vote in 1936; namely, to promise complete amnesty for brother Al, to let him off all his income-tax, if he would just once more apply his brotherly love in Italy; if he would, in fact, take on a vice and knock off Dictator Il Duce—Signor Tiger-face Mussolini.

In all probability the war would then fizzle out, because, as everyone knows, without a dictator there is no need for war.

Saint Al, because he had enabled his country to come again to shout: "We won the war," would become such a hero, that he'd be voted mayor of Chicago by acclamation. Lindbergh's parade up Broadway wouldn't be in it.

Al might then be inspired to still more humanitarianism; he might try the artistic touch on another swash-buckling, sword-rattling, drum-beating fire-eater, viz. Herr Hitler. And then history books might end like the fairy tales: "And they lived happily ever after."

Mrs. Miyao said the child, aged two, had been seized with convulsions. A post mortem will be conducted to-day.

Sees Aberhart Climbing Down

Prof. Angus of U.B.C. Says Alberta Social Credit Impossible

Canadian Press
Qualicum Beach, B.C., Aug. 28.—William Aberhart, leader of Alberta's new Social Credit Government, will have to "climb down and he believes he will find it easier to climb down than to climb up," Douglas said today.

Addressing the annual regional council meeting of the Canadian Clubs of British Columbia, yesterday evening, Prof. Angus declared: "Major Douglas's social credit plan is most unlike that of Mr. Aberhart's, who is not an economist but a high school mathematics teacher."

The speaker referred to the $25 non-negotiable credit to be granted each adult in Alberta every month.

"The non-negotiable credit is used for the simple reason the Bank Act of the Dominion will not allow negotiable certificates to be used by other institutions than banks," he said. The initial monthly cost of the scheme is $10,000,000; the annual cost $120,000,000.

HIGHER PRICES

"It necessarily follows that prices would rise by reason of inflation and that has given Mr. Aberhart some considerable thought. The problem necessarily faces the state credit."

"Mr. Aberhart suggested he would overcome the problem by exchanging bank balances and paid-up insurance. When people become nervous over the suggestion, Mr. Aberhart withdrew it and declared the scheme was entirely co-operative but those who did not co-operate would not obtain the monthly dividend and would pay higher taxes."

"To my mind, if voluntary exchanges are not made, the scheme will not work."

SPECULATION AT BOMBAY BARRED

Bombay, Aug. 28.—Governors of the stock exchange to-day moved against bear speculators with an order prohibiting forward transaction in 3½ per cent government paper and other securities until after the September 13 settlement day.

The action followed a heavy fall in government paper and other gilt-edged securities.

Associated Press
New York, Aug. 28.—The slump in the Bombay stock exchange, resulting in restrictions against speculators, was interpreted in Wall Street to-day as an outgrowth of recent difficulties of speculators in silver and jute.

With early closing to-day a general exodus of the population took place, as thousands made for the beaches and lakes. The sand and rocks, however, were so hot that many found they had to keep their shoes on to walk in comfort. Fading tans have been brought back to a brown tone by the burning sun of the last few days, while many a blistered back resulted from staying out too long.

"Continued fine and warm" is Mr. Denison's prediction for the next few days, though he holds out a hope for relief in the fact that Victoria's seldom experiences more than three hot days in a row.

The heat is general throughout the Pacific Coast as far south as southern Oregon. Even California, which has been having quite a lot of rain, is returning to sunnier days.

The sunshine has averaged twelve hours a day for the last ten days, Mr. Denison reports, and the amount of sunshine this month is already well above the average.

Canadian Bar Association Hears Suggestion of Stopping of Postal and Other Services as War Preventive

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, Aug. 28.—The Canadian Bar Association, gathering in annual convention here to-day, took cognizance of the difficulty of Mr. Average Citizen living a normal life in a world of turmoil.

Submitting the report of the committee on international law, O. M. Bigger, K.C., Ottawa, chairman, pointed out after reviewing the world conditions that:

"This is the state of the world in which the possibility of an ordinary citizen living a normal and orderly life depends as never before upon the maintenance by his government of peaceful and orderly relations with foreign governments and peoples."

GLOOM JUSTIFIED

The gloomy account of the prospects for the maintenance of international order given in the committee's report to the last annual meeting had been justified by events of the year under review, the report said.

Because of the existing conditions, the report said, the day to day conduct of business depended far more than in the past on carrying out of international agreements for international services such as forwarding of letters and parcels by post, transmission of telegrams and cables, etc.

PREVENTION OF WAR

The report added: "It might have been supposed that, without imposing any legal restrictions on their citizens or taking any military measures whatever, two or three national governments, or perhaps even a single one, could have brought the Chaco war to an earlier end by refusing to allow its postal service, its telegraph lines or its wireless stations to be used for the transmission of letters or telegrams dispatched by or addressed to persons in either Paraguay or Bolivia."

"It seems obvious that if an unjustifiable breach of the public peace were merely in contemplation, similar action would be an even more effective deterrent. To merchants and others such action would involve inconvenience, but all the terrible consequences of actual warfare operations would be avoided, unless the action taken led to armed reprisals to which, for geographical and other reasons, it would very seldom be possible for the offender to resort."

Simplification of Canada's Laws Urged

Lawyers should study the changes to determine if they were constitutionally sound or if they might undermine and weaken the foundation stones of civil liberty. The lawyer was needed to advise nations as they embarked on uncharted seas and the profession should be ready to give advice, said Mr. Pitblado.

GREAT EFFORTS URGED

Pointing to efforts already underway in the United States, Mr. Pitblado emphasized need of simplification and clarification of the law. The Canadian Bar Association, he said, should bring about needed changes in the law and also improve administration of the law.

An important objective of the association was "uniformity of legislation throughout Canada so far as is consistent with the preservation of the basic systems of law in the respective provinces. As far as possible, uniformity of judicial decisions should also be sought."

PROVINCIAL ACTION

"Our association looks forward to the day when there shall be not only uniformity of legislation in the various provinces, but also uniformity in provincial legislation and also in interpreting the common law in those provinces where the common law prevails," said Mr. Pitblado.

Effort of the association should be directed at all times at preserving a "United Canada," said Mr. Pitblado.

Reports were submitted to the delegates during the opening session and a welcome was extended by Lieutenant-Governor Tupper and Premier Bracken. Lindsey Grease, K.C., Victoria, vice-president for British Columbia, replied to the welcome.

VISITORS FROM ABROAD

Noted visitors from Great Britain and the United States are participating in the three-day programme, being listed to address convention sessions luncheons, and the annual banquet Thursday evening.

Mr. Boyd Merriman, president of the probate, divorce and admiralty division of the High Court of Justice of England, who arrived in Winnipeg to-day, was welcomed by Mr. Pitblado.

W. L. Ransom, president of the American Bar Association, is heading United States visitors to the convention. Mr. Ransom, who comes from New York, addressed the convention this afternoon on "The Organized Bar Faces the Future."

Drunk Monkeys Are Recaptured

Frank Buck's Employees Ruse in New York State Puts Three Back in Zoo; Twelve Which Escaped Still Roaming

Manassas, N. Y., Aug. 28.—(Associated Press).—Victims of skull-duggery, three drunken monkeys were recaptured to-day and returned to Frank Buck's monkey camp.

They had terrific hang-overs. The monkeys fell for a last and desperate trick on the part of Buck's employees who had employed various methods to capture them since 175 of them escaped from the animal house more than a week ago.

They imbibed too freely of whiskey which was placed yesterday evening in suitcases and scattered over the woods in which the fugitives were hiding.

The inebriated three were taken into custody without much trouble. The monkeys were very cock-eyed and defenceless. They were placed in separate cages and provided with ice and cold water.

The monkey-hunters scoured the woods, hoping to find the remaining twelve still at large.

Aberhart Designated Alberta Cabinet Head

MORE DISCUSSION

The caucus adjourned at noon without deciding about federal candidates or whether an alliance would be made with the Stevens Reconstructionists. It will be decided later to-day.

Major C. H. Douglas, founder of Social Credit and already an adviser to the Alberta government, will come here from England to help establish the new order. Mr. Aberhart was instructed by the caucus to invite Mr. Douglas here when it was convenient for the new government, but no date was set.

The caucus to-day was held in the big auditorium of the Calgary Propheet Bible Institute, built by Mr. Aberhart before he turned to politics.

DISTURBING FACTORS

On a wave of popularity, the Aberhart forces were swept to victory at the polls last week, they will take office amid disquieting financial reports. In Edmonton yesterday, Premier Reid announced payment of provincial savings certificates had been suspended temporarily because of an unusually heavy drain on liquid funds.

While Mr. Reid and Mr. Aberhart joined in the cheering, resounding statements, pointing to the temporary embarrassing financial position and predicting things would be running smoothly in a week or ten days, Mayor Davidson of Calgary served notice the city would be forced to default on its bonds unless the province or the Dominion came to its assistance.

AID PROMISED

In reply, Mr. Aberhart advised the mayor Calgary's plea for assistance would be given every consideration when the Social Credit government takes office next week.

Mayor Davidson said the city would require $450,000 to carry on its business to the end of the year. Of this amount, $158,000 would be required for interest alone and an unestimated amount for salaries and unemployment relief expenditures.

The mayor told Aberhart that if the situation became so bad he would be forced to either pay interest on Calgary debentures or feed the unemployed, he would choose the latter course.

It was said to-day the new Legislature might be called to meet October 24.

APPEALS TO OTTAWA

Calgary, Aug. 28.—(Canadian Press).—A direct appeal will be made to the federal government for financial aid by the city of Calgary, Mayor Andrew Davidson stated to-day. He said he would dispatch a telegram to Premier Bennett later to-day.

The city requires $450,000 to carry on civil services until the end of the year. The city's bankers, Mr. Davidson said, to-day declined further extensions of credit.

PARTY STANDING

Canadian Press
Edmonton, Aug. 28.—Elected members of the Social Credit League neared the fifty mark to-day with the election of William Tomyn, the new party's nominee in Whitford riding.

The League had elected forty-nine candidates to-day, and held a lead in seven doubtful constituencies. The Liberals were next with four elected an done leading in a doubtful constituency. The Conservatives had two elected members in the Legislature of sixty-three chosen in the polling last Thursday.

In a four-cornered fight, Tomyn was elected on a third count in Whitford with a total vote of 1,370, against 1,121 for his U.P.A. opponent, I. Gorecky, former member. The Liberal and Communist candidates were eliminated in earlier counts.

Canadians To Support Peace

Prime Minister Tells of Instructions to Delegates to League Assembly

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—The Canadian delegation to the League of Nations Assembly has been instructed to support peace, according to Prime Minister Bennett.

"Members of the delegation were told the only war we are interested in is the war for peace," he added.

The Premier and Dr. O. D. Skelton, Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs, yesterday spent several hours with J. H. Woods of Calgary, Miss Winifred Kydd, dean of women at Queen's University, Kingston, and Prof. Edouard Montpetit of Montreal University, members of the Canadian delegation.

Mr. Bennett said later instructions given the delegation were necessarily in the most general terms. The Council of the League would meet several days in advance of the Assembly meeting, and developments there would necessarily have to be taken into consideration when considering any course of action to be followed.

It is anticipated the delegation will keep in close touch with the government here.

The Assembly of the League will meet at Geneva early in September.

Strike Plan To Avert War

British and European Labor Leaders Plan Move If Italy Fights

By G. H. ANDERSON

Associated Press Staff Writer

London, Aug. 28.—General strikes to-day were reported being planned by British and Continental laborers in the event hostilities break out in East Africa.

These reported plans, to be reviewed by the British Trade Union Congress at Margate next week, include strikes against handling supplies consigned to Italy.

When C. R. Attlee, deputy opposition leader in the House of Commons, conferred in Paris recently with Leon Blum, French Socialist leader, he carried out instructions from Rt. Hon. George Lansbury, leader of the opposition party in Parliament, to exchange views and possibly lay ground-work for future joint action in the industrial field.

Results of cabinet meetings to-day at Bolzano, Italy, and Paris were awaited with keenest interest at Whitehall, where Sir Samuel Hoare, Foreign Secretary, and Rt. Hon. Anthony Eden, Minister for League of Nations Affairs, were putting the finishing touches on the announcement of British policy to be made at the League Council session September 4.

BRITAIN AND GERMANY

The London Daily Mail declared editorially: "More and more it is being recognized in this country that the key to the British policy should be the cultivation of friendship with Germany."

After referring to the "inspired leadership of Hitler," the paper urged consideration be given to Germany's pressing need of colonies. In the interests of world peace, the paper added, "the British Government might well consider whether it would not be wise to transfer to Germany territories at present held under the direct mandate of Britain."

Sanctions Against Italy Not Part Of Laval's Geneva Plan

Associated Press
Paris, Aug. 28.—The French cabinet to-day empowered Premier Laval to oppose the application of sanctions by the League of Nations against Italy in the conflict with Ethiopia.

In a four-hour session, the cabinet heard M. Laval's plan to induce the League Council to regard an Italian war against Ethiopia as a "colonial expedition."

The ministers were reported agreed that it was imperative for France to retain the friendship of both Italy and Great Britain, but that it was important to save the League from a loss of prestige by attempting a programme which French authorities thought was impossible.

Hope for a solution, M. Laval was said to have told the ministers, was brightened by Duce's agreement to present the case at Geneva, indicating a desire to avoid a break with the League of the big powers.

Canadians Press From Havas

London, Aug. 28.—Sir Samuel Hoare, Foreign Secretary, to-day again received Rt. Hon. Stanley Bruce, Australian High Commissioner in London. The nature of their conversations was not revealed, but it was recalled Mr. Bruce, in company with representatives of all the other Dominions, last week was called to the Foreign Office to receive the Foreign Minister's outline of the British attitude in the Ethiopian crisis.

Letters in The London Times to-day from Viscount Cecil, president of the British League of Nations Union, and from Lord Ponsonby, Labor notable took opposing viewpoints regarding application of sanctions in the East African dispute.

CO-OPERATION

Lord Ponsonby declared such action would constitute a futile provocation. He advocated co-operation with France.

Lord Cecil took issue with the belief that application of sanctions would be equivalent to declaration of war. He cited similar measures taken against the Soviet Union, when it was decided for a time to stop all further imports from that country.

FURLOUGHS ENDED

Rome, Aug. 28.—(Associated Press).—The government, marshalling every resource to meet a possible crisis in Ethiopia, to-day decided to cancel all furloughs to the military personnel, it was disclosed by informed sources.

The order, these sources related, will cancel the annual holiday of every member of the army, navy and aviation forces.

The Minister of Propaganda to-day officially denied reports published abroad 12,000 Somali troops armed and trained by Italian colonial officers had deserted to Ethiopia with their arms.

RECRUITS OFFER SERVICES

Addis Ababa, Aug. 28.—The Ethiopian minister at Cairo to-day informed Emperor Haile Selassie 5,000 Egyptians, Mohammedans and Coptic Christians, were ready to form a "foreign legion" to fight against Italy if war comes.

The Ethiopian consulates at Cairo and Port Said were described as besieged by crowds of applicants seeking enlistment in the Ethiopian army. Authoritative sources, however, said the government would await the result of the forthcoming League of Nations Council session at Geneva before accepting foreign volunteers.

per cents. The total fall in Alberta stocks since last Friday is illustrated by The Financial News as follows:

Alberta 5 per cents, 1938, three points; Alberta 4½ per cents, 1943, three points; Alberta 3 per cents, 1942, 37, 1½ points; Calgary sterling 4½ per cent, 1937-42, 3½ points; Calgary 4½ per cent, 1937, 1½ points; Calgary 5 per cent, 1943-44, 3½ points.

Edmonton 5 per cent, 1937-48, 2½ points; Edmonton 4½, 1940, 2½ points; Edmonton 4½ per cent, 1930-31, 2½ points; Edmonton 4½ per cent, 1932, 3½ points; Edmonton 5 per cent, 1933, 3½ points; Lethbridge 4½ and Medicine Hat 5 per cent, unchanged.

MAJOR FACTOR

Edmonton, Aug. 28.—(Canadian Press).—Falling prices of Alberta bonds were a major factor in the outgoing Reid government's decision to suspend further payments on savings certificates for redemption, it was learned here to-day. When securities were not marketable, the difficulty of meeting the heavy demands for payments of savings certificates became apparent.

Premier Reid declined yesterday to make known the actual amount withdrawn by those who had held savings certificates.

During recent weeks there has been a weakening in prices of Alberta bonds, in common with those of Saskatchewan and British Columbia, according to government officials.

For example, Alberta 4½ per cent bonds maturing in 1946 had a price range of from 96½ to 98½ on August 13, while on August 21 this had fallen fully two points, while on Tuesday the quotation was from 97½ to 92½, according to city bond dealers.

Alberta 6 per cent bonds maturing in 1947 were moving at from 104 to 108½ on August 13, while on August 21 the range was from 103½ to 104½. On Tuesday, these were quoted at from 98½ to 99½.

The Alberta savings certificate system is very similar to a savings bank except that deposits may be made for term certificates which are not payable for one, two or three years after issue. Demand certificates are payable on demand and yield 5 per cent interest. One year certificates are to-day yielding 3½ per cent interest.

Bromo-Setzer's balanced medicinal ingredients not only stop the pain and relieve gas on the stomach quickly—but also relax your nerves, build up your alkaline reserve, and thus help end fatigue and refresh you. At drug stores and drug store soda fountains.

Mr. Cavallieri, when interviewed in his suite aboard the Canada, said he would not care to say too much about the trip, believing it was up to Mr. Buck to give full particulars. He did say, however, that he and the other cameramen had secured several fine shots of wild buffalo.

"They are sure wild," he said. "They are pretty fast, too, and go for you if they get a chance."

Tracking wild animals in the jungles is really quite tame, in the opinion of Mr. Cavallieri. A lot of patience is needed, he said. Sometimes it is possible to walk for miles through the jungle without meeting a thing.

Mr. Cavallieri, who has traveled to all sorts of strange places in the world is not a stranger to Victoria. He has been here several times. He was last here about a year ago with Father Bernard Hubbard, the "glacier priest," who was returning from Alaska. He took a lot of pictures of craters and glaciers and mountain lakes and made quite a name for himself in Hollywood. He was only back from that expedition a few weeks when he signed up with Mr. Buck for the tropical adventure. He is now en route to his home in New Haven, Connecticut, for a long holiday.

BACHELOR WON JAM CONTEST

Took Grand Championship
Against 100 Women at Chicago Fair

Chicago, Aug. 28.—Are the men going "easy"?
Anyways, more men have been winning the laurels in many spheres which until recently were considered the exclusive domain of the gentler sex.

So while the women seek acclaim as stepladders, steamfitters, subway diggers and deep-sea divers, these men are making their mark in the kitchen by taking championship titles in dishes, dainties, darning, knitting, baking and preserving.

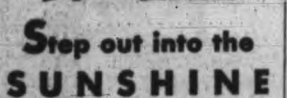

Witness the case of David Hipple, forty-five, a bachelor farmer. His blackberry jam recently won the grand championship prize at the Cook County (Chicago) Fair.

"I'm no expert, but I'm better than most women," said Hipple, whose jam was judged superior to that submitted by more than 100 women contestants.

Out in rugged Greeley County, Kansas, three boys were the winners in a baking contest yesterday.

Another male who caused the ladies to blush was John F. Cann of Boston, who defeated scores of club women and girl students in a knitting bee. He was the only male entry.

While cruising, transport planes always have their controllable pitch propellers in "high pitch."

Step out into the SUNSHINE

How many days of your life are lost in feeling under par? How many hours which might be bright are dull and dissipated?

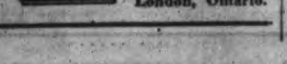

Half-hearted days are frequently due to common constipation. It clouds your waking hours, takes the sunshine out of living. Yet it can be overcome so easily by eating a delicious cereal.

Laboratory tests show Kellogg's All-Bran provides "bulk" and vitamin B to aid elimination. All-Bran is also a fine source of iron.

The "bulk" in All-Bran is much like that in leafy vegetables. Isn't this "cereal way" pleasanter than risking patent medicines?

Two tablespoons daily are usually sufficient. With each meal, in chronic cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Serve All-Bran as a cereal or use in muffins, breads, omelets, etc. In the red and green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Former Victoria Sisters Busy In New Mission

Mother Mary Leopoldine and Companions Write of Experiences in Japan: People Very Grateful and Courteous

Letters of unusual interest have been received at St. Ann's Academy from the missionary Sisters of the Order who left Victoria last October at the invitation of Monsignor Roy, to serve the needs of the large province of Kagoshima in whatever way circumstances might suggest.

These letters, the contributions to the monthly bulletins, which, according to the rules of the Order, are sent from the principal houses of the Sisters to the Mother House at Lachine, from whence they are circulated in French and English to the one hundred institutions of the Order. The various communities are thus kept in touch with the work and interests of each.

Since their arrival in Japan the little community of four, with Mother Mary Leopoldine as Superior, has spent much time in the study of the language and in observing conditions, and a dispensary has been opened at Taniyama-machi, in the district of Kagoshima. A larger and more important one will be opened shortly at Ohari, a suburb of Fukuoka. Four more Sisters of St. Ann, who left Victoria last week, will be stationed there.

At Ohari the houses are modern and very beautiful and have been built within the last two or three years, to accommodate members of the professional class—doctors, professors and lawyers. The Sisters have built here their kindergarten, which is of much promise, and the new convent and dispensary, now under construction, will be ready for occupation in September.

The work is under the patronage and direction of Monsignor Breton, a native of France, had already spent ten years of his priestly life in California before going to Japan. He has shown himself an able architect.

The gardens are luxurious in the richness of their tropical vegetation. Flower seeds from Vancouver have germinated in three weeks and have grown visibly a finger a day. Pines and large cherry trees were transplanted in spring without even a slight drooping of their foliage. Easter lilies bloomed with seventeen blossoms on a single stalk; laurels were covered with buds, roses and azaleas were a wealth of color.

Kindergarten classes are being held in a pine grove fanned by delicious sea breezes. The modern buildings and conveniences, motors, radio, are in sharp contrast to the primitive methods of farming and harvesting. There are references in the letters to rice planting, and the cutting of barley by women armed only with hand sickles. The grain is flailed as in the days of our ancestors, and dropped from a considerable height to allow the grain to fall and the chaff to be blown away by the winds.

The Sisters' first experience of the Japanese rainy season of three weeks' duration, so vital for the growing of the rice crops, and which begins and ends with a thunder-storm, is recorded in their June missive.

HABITS CHANGED
They found, as in the tropics, their cloth and leather goods were damaged by the dampness and the heat. While at first the cold was severe and heavier clothing was needed, and larger shoes were worn to allow of heavy stockings. The intense heat has necessitated some changes in the habits worn by the Sisters. These are now three inches shorter in the skirts, and the summer costume is of linen. Japanese shoes with canvas tops and light flexible white leather soles are found cool and comfortable.

The mosquitoes are annoying and smudges are made outside the houses, and the beds are protected by the Kaya or mosquito tent. The Sisters have been supplied with a Japanese mat (Gosa) which is placed over the mattress (futon) and ensures cool and comfortable nights. A daily sleaz is also found necessary.

Little details of the visits of prelates and members of various missionary sisterhoods engaged in Japan, enthusiasm over gifts received from other convents of St. Ann, which vie with each other in providing the necessities of missionary life for their Sisters in distant lands; a visit to a Japanese dentist who proved to be a graduate of 1922, Philadelphia College of Dentistry; and to a Japanese optometrist, very kind and capable; are all given in a delightful family spirit.

The people of Japan have shown themselves interested, courteous and very grateful, the Sisters record. A laborer who was injured by a fall from a scaffolding while engaged in building was treated by Sister M. Ignatia, late of St. Joseph's Hospital, and as soon as he could make the journey of fifteen miles to Kagoshima, he sent her a huge bouquet of beautiful flowers.

At the time of writing a third bouquet of the first dahlias in season had been received at the dispensary. Mother Leopoldine having engaged a Japanese woman to clean the house, was so pleased at the thoroughness of her work that she offered her double the small amount asked for at the end of the day. The woman insisted it was too much, but was over-ruled. However, she returned to Mother Leopoldine with half the money, saying that her husband had sent her back, as she had earned only half.

Such qualities of courtesy and honesty amongst the elders, and the fact that song and dance play so important a part in the education of Japanese children, convince the missionary Sisters of St. Ann that their lot has fallen in pleasant places.

In honor of Miss Evelyn Warburton, whose marriage will take place this week, the members of the V.V. Club entertained recently at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. C. S. Brown, 951 Green Street. The gifts were concealed in an imitation radio. During the evening games were enjoyed, after which refreshments were served from a table prettily arranged with a silver basket of salmon pink snapdragons and matching tapers in silver holders. The invited guests were: Mrs. A. Brakes, Mrs. C. Richards, Mrs. E. Knapton, Mrs. G. Fox, Mrs. E. Warburton, Mrs. D. Cook, Mrs. C. W. Wilson, Mrs. P. Forrester, Mrs. A. Geddes, Mrs. G. Hartley, Misses Emily Warburton, Marion Tyrrell, Violet Brakes, Eileen Burke, Nora Reid, Winnie Knapton, Gladys Sayer, Thelma Meads (Vancouver), Dorothy Hartley, Gladys Barlow and Kay Knapton.

The supper table was centred with a three-tier wedding cake, and silver scones held in place tall tapers to illuminate the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson left for a wedding trip on Vancouver Island and will later make their home in Vancouver.

For traveling the bride wore a navy blue silk dress, beneath a black and white tuxedo coat with collar, and hat to match.

M.P.P.-ELECT RESIGNS JOB

Mrs. E. Gostick, Social Creditor, Leaves Store Post; Supports Family

By J. F. SANDERSON
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Calgary, Aug. 28.—Mrs. Edith Gostick registered a 25-cent purchase in the meat department of a large Calgary department store to-day where she has worked as a cashier four years. Then she walked out, free of business worries, ready to devote her full time to a new job, member of the Alberta Legislature.

Mrs. Gostick was one of two members of the Social Credit Party who won a seat last week in the provincial election which swept William Abernethy's forces to power. The other was Mrs. W. W. Rogers, a former school teacher and bank clerk who defeated ex-Premier Brownlee in Ponoka.

For four years, Mrs. Gostick has supported an invalid husband and two children, ringing up sales in the big department store. Her husband, who served overseas in the Canadian Engineers and whose health was shattered, will never work again. Her two boys have not reached an age where they can shoulder financial support of the family.

Two years ago, Mrs. Gostick first learned the Social Credit doctrine as expounded by William Abernethy. She determined then and there it pointed to the economic salvation of the province. She threw all her energy into its study and when Abernethy decided to organize a party, became one of his lieutenants. Her work was climaxed last week in her own election as a member for Calgary and an overwhelming victory for the party throughout the province.

During the war Mrs. Gostick, although born in Wales, served in the London office of the Australian pay corps while her husband was at the front. Altogether, she has lived in Alberta twenty-five years and believes she will receive the biggest thrill of her life when she takes her seat in the legislative chamber at Edmonton at $1,800 a year.

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

HERE'S A NEIGHBOR WHO SETS BOY AGAINST HIS MOTHER

Sometimes a mother will know the answer to her own questions if she will query herself this way: "How shall I act so as to promote the child's best interest?" Since an honest answer to this question is pertinent to any method of treatment—it is a good point from which to start.

If Mrs. O. W. is considering the ultimate good of her child, she will know why it is beside the point to be worried about her neighbor's "feelings." "You have helped me before," she writes, "and now I am in a quandary. My two-year-old boy is a contented, good tempered youngster.

RUNS FROM MOTHER

"He plays alone a lot because there are no children in the neighborhood for him to play with. For the last three months a neighbor has been taking him over to her house for indefinite periods.

"When it comes time to bathe, dress or feed him and I go for him, he always runs to her crying. 'Lady!' and seems to take refuge with her against me as an unpleasant authority.

"Once she told me that when she cared for children she liked to have them say, 'I like you better than my mother.'—so I feel sure she encourages this feeling in him. Should I deny him the freedom and companionship he enjoys his sensation of power in offend her.

SHE'S NO FRIEND

"Also when putting him to bed if I undress him he demands his father, if his father, he demands me. I know he enjoys his sensation of power in leaving us about—but what shall I do, ignore it?"

It is for your child's good to respect your authority and to accept it. The adult who poisons his mind against this—who endeavors to worm himself into a superior position with the child—is no friend of yours or his. She is a selfish, inconsiderate woman.

LET BOY CHOOSE

But talk to her frankly. The boy needs young companions and should enjoy other adults beside his mother—but they should not act as usurpers when given this privilege. In case she continues to do so, end the companionship.

Let the boy choose, when convenient, which parent he would like to have wait upon him. This is a good opportunity to let him come to independent decisions and then abide by them. When it is inconvenient to do this—tell him which one will help him and then ignore his captious demands.

To-morrow: "If Meals Are a Bore to Runabout Child, Let Him Feed Himself."

Thyra Winslow Tells Why Many Marriages Fail

By MARY MARGARET McBRIDE

New York.—The reason women fail to hold their husbands—when they do fail—is not so much that they "let themselves go," to use an old-fashioned expression, as that they let their husbands go. At least, that is what Thyra Winslow, well-known author, thinks.

"Career women, in my opinion, have better homes, on the whole, than women who are supposed to make a business of home-making," the writer declares. "I am meeting charming, well-dressed, smart-looking women and then being horrified when I get a look at their dreadful houses. They seem to think that when they have used taste in outfitting themselves, their responsibility is finished.

"Anything will do," they imply, for the place where they live and in which they entertain their friends. The most modest women will have showy places which they suppose are good because of their costliness.

"Don't they realize that their homes are reflections of their personalities, too? Has it really never occurred to them that they will be judged by the house where nothing goes with anything else just as severely as by a costume that is inappropriate and jumbled?"

CAREER WOMEN'S HOMES ARE MOST ATTRACTIVE

Miss Winslow insists that not only are the most charming homes she has ever seen the creations of women lawyers, doctors, opera singers and writers, but also that their owners have achieved their ends without great difficulty.

"It's all in starting with a plan," she explains. "The average woman adds gimcracks without rhyme or reason, going blithely along accumulating rubbish.

"And then, there is something worse. On top of all that, her food is bad. There may possibly be excused for bad taste in the home, though I do not believe it, but there is absolutely none for badly prepared food. We have here the most wonderful markets and food materials in the whole world. This is the only country, in fact, where bread is not the staff of life. Our poorest people have fresh milk and vegetables, fresh fruits, meats two or three times a week. These are luxuries in other lands.

"Yet with all this lavishness or could it be because of it?—American women under-cook or over-cook, allow food which should be hot to come to their tables lukewarm, and

"serve their cold food in the same indeterminate state."

SHOULD LEARN INTERIOR DECORATING

Miss Winslow's book of short stories, "My Own, My Native Land," just published, gives some first-hand pictures of both good and bad homes in her Arkansas home-town. She says homes are no worse there than anywhere else, and she thinks the food is probably better. Several of the stories are written around nostalgia food memories—salt-rising bread, sea-food Creole and the like.

If women want to do something about this matter of bettering their homes, Miss Winslow suggests that they set about learning interior decoration, exactly as they learned clothes. Nearly every big store in America, she points out, has an interior decorating department where they may be taught. They can also read newspapers and magazines, and they can experiment and correct their own mistakes. She suggests that one of their most glaring mistakes, at the present time, is to confuse cost with beauty.

"A woman will think because an object costs a great sum, it must be good," she complains. "Yet she had learned long ago that the simplest, most inexpensive little dress may be charming if the lines and color are right. Especially the color. In their homes, women are still afraid of color. They will have to get over that."

Miss Winslow, who in her book sometimes writes a little scathingly of small towns, says they still are her first and last love. She lives in New York because her work is there, but during the greater part of the fifteen years she has been there, she has had a house in the suburbs, nearest big-city thing to a small town. There she can watch the youngsters grow up, invite them in occasionally for fudge parties, or take her dog out for a walk and have people stop to ask how he is!

POLICE RAIDED BEAUTY PARLOR

On Husband's Complaint as to Betting Activities

Associated Press
Philadelphia, Aug. 28.—A group of crusading husbands turned the tables on their wives to-day, giving a new version to the old complaint about staying away from home and spending the grocery money.

Police raided a beauty parlor in response to protests by husbands and arrested two women on horse race bookmaking charges. Patrolman Harry Richter came out of the place, removed his cap and fanned his brow.

"The funny part of it was the four or five patrons in the place," he said. "They were sitting under drying machines, with their curls in a million wires, nonchalantly reading their racing forms.

"And believe me, it took us nearly all day to unhook them."

EIGHT-HOUR DAY ACT FACES TEST

Canadian Press
Montreal, Aug. 28.—Validity of the Dominion Government's Eight-hour Day Act, which will become effective October 8, will eventually face a test by the provinces; according to Premier Taschereau.

The legislation would certainly conflict with provincial laws concerning working hours, the Premier of Quebec said.

In such a case, the provincial government would place before the courts the task of determining the constitutionality of the legislation, he said.

"I suppose one must be something of a fatalist to take it up in the first place. Would you mind telling me what influenced you to prefer it to being a nurse?"

Irene laughed and evaded the question.

"It was probably fear of idleness. Few patients can afford to hire special nurses."

His gray eyes smiled at her. "Patients could always afford to hire a nurse like you. I watched you on the plane, you see, so I know how sweet you can be. If I were ill, just the sight of you would make me all up and take notice."

"Unfortunately all patients are not like you. I wish they were."

She liked him by that time for himself. Would have done so if he had been no relation of the famous surgeon. But stronger than her admiration and deeper than her pleasure in his company was a sharp instinctive desire to strike back at the man who had deserted her. To prove to Bart she, too, could be accepted by the Reagan family. That even though he had given her up, this other man, who was accustomed to luxury and advantages Bart had never known, considered her worthy of his friendship.

Without consciously formulating any plan, Irene was saying that he would like her. That she might be gay and entertaining that he would insist upon seeing her again, and it was not difficult to do this because Stephen had been interested in her from the beginning.

"I like you," he said as they returned to the landing field. "Why shouldn't I say so?"

"I like you, too," she answered truthfully.

"Isn't it funny," he continued, "how sharing an adventure seems to speed up a friendship which might otherwise have taken weeks to develop?"

"I would undoubtedly have thought you were pretty and charming meeting me under any circumstances, but seeing you like a gentle ministering angel to those fussy passengers made me want to know you better."

"I did nothing that wasn't my duty," she contradicted. "And they weren't really fussy. And they weren't really nervous. When people are frightened they are apt to be irritable."

"I still insist you were an angel. A cool collected little angel who never once thought of herself."

He lifted her hand to his lips, half in fun, half seriously.

"May I telephone you when we both get back to San Francisco?"

CHAPTER IX

It seemed almost unbelievable the way fate was playing into Irene's hands. As if Stephen Reagan could read her mind and wanted to help her. Yet she knew no such idea could be back of the invitation which was telephoned to her the following Thursday.

"What nights this week will you be in town?" he asked.

When she told him she would be home from Friday noon until Sunday morning he said, "That will be fine. How about coming out to the house for dinner Saturday night—there we'll go some places and dance? I'd like to have you meet my sister."

From then on, Irene was concerned with only one question. Would Bart let her be there or wouldn't he? It wasn't often he had been able to go dancing with her but then her own time had been limited. Now that her internship was so nearly finished he would be working harder than ever. She told herself he probably wouldn't be present at the dinner on Saturday night, but on the chance that he might she bought a new dress.

It was the kind of a dress calculated to make a man weep tears of regret when he saw it. It was wistful and demure and provocative, of swirling transparent white with a deep yoke of crushed white violets.

"You look like an angel," Stephen said. "Not the angel of mercy, you are, but the kind that plays a harp."

He had called for her at the Alameda apartment so that she wouldn't have to cross the bay alone. He was one man whose time would never be considered too valuable to permit such small courtesies.

The more she saw of him the better she liked his wholesome point of view and buoyant unspoiled optimism. It was refreshing to be with a person whose intelligence was keenly alert yet who had also managed to retain his enthusiasm.

Stephen Reagan, Jr. who asked to be called Steve, enjoyed life. He liked to swim and dance and play tennis. He rode horseback and traveled in airplanes.

"I'd like to have a plane of my own some day," he said, just as he had said, "Some day I'd like to have a publishing business of my own." His

Jubilee Season Takes Big Toll

Debutantes Feeling Strain,
But Fathers' Pockets Also

Girl Insane

London (By Mail).—The Jubilee Season—the most glorious and brilliant London has known since the war—has ended but the effects, it has left on some of the more pleasure-loving debutantes and their mothers will last for many weeks.

Night after night there have been an endless round of parties, dances, first-nights and balls.

One girl who was presented at the first court has been warned by her doctor to take two months' complete rest in the country to escape nervous collapse.

Since April she has been to some 100 dances—sometimes two or three in one night.

Beauty specialists have had a rich harvest. Women have spent hundreds of pounds on "something to freshen me up."

Charity dance organizers have also done well. In the past six months one well-known organizer has made £18,000 for charity on eleven dinners and dances. At one of these, applied heavily but also with a good deal of skill.

She was obviously trying to look as unhealthily exotic as a naturally buxom girl could, and this effect, so apparent to the other girls' experienced eyes, made her seem cruelly young.

"She's nothing but a baby," was Irene's first astonished impression. Even her own little sister, Betty, who was the same age, seemed grown up in comparison with this other eighteen-year-old.

"It's about time you were getting here," Peggy exclaimed.

"What's your hurry?" Steve retorted good naturedly. "Irene, this is the spoiled sister. Peggy, I want you to meet Miss Gardner."

"How do you do?" drawled Peggy in her best movie star manner. "I'm starved. That's why I'm in a hurry."

BUTTER BEANS (LIMAS, IF YOU PREFER) ARE FOUR TIMES AS
HEARTY AS GREEN BEANS

By MARY E. DAGUE

Butter beans we called them at home, though I know there are those who will say that lima and butter beans are not the same thing. But when I was a little girl, we had only butter beans and if they aren't lima, then they are sisters.

The first butter beans, tender, meaty, sauced with cream, butter and a fleck of black pepper were an event with us, and they ought to be with anybody who has a garden. Those who don't, will find them plentiful in the market now, shelled or unshelled. Better buy them in the pod because they bruise easily, and retain their freshness better unshelled.

HEARTIER THAN GREEN BEANS

A heartier food than the green beans of early summer, lima and many calories to the diet, according to the manner of serving. One-fourth cup—four level tablespoons—served lightly seasoned with butter furnishes 100 calories of protein, fat and carbohydrates, while it takes one whole cup, just four times as much, of string or green beans to supply the same amount of food value. The green bean is ahead on vitamins, though.

You will probably find several varieties of lima beans in your market. There are tiny green ones—baby limas—large green ones, large flat white ones. All are good if gathered before the milk becomes firm inside the tender shell-like covering. As the beans ripen this covering grows hard and difficult to digest and the smooth creamy centre becomes dry and unpalatable. No matter how long the beans are cooked these conditions cannot be altered nor the vegetable improved.

The best way to serve lima beans that have been allowed to become over-ripe is to rub them through a sieve after cooking and do them in a puree or soufflé. This removes the tough covering, but, of course, does not restore the delicate flavor of the tender vegetable.

SERVED WITH CREAM

Tender, freshly-gathered limas are most delicious served in pure cream. One-half cup cream is seasoned with salt and pepper and added to two cups of cooked limas. Heat to the scalding point, but do not let boil. The cream coats the beans lightly and makes them delightfully moist and smooth.

Always cook limas in as little water as possible and cook them uncovered. Let the water cook away or use it in a sauce with butter and a little flour rubbed together. Rub 1 teaspoon flour into 2 tablespoons. Lima beans should be salted when they are half cooked. Otherwise there's danger of toughening the covering. Allow thirty to forty minutes for limas to cook and shake the pan occasionally to prevent scorching. "I do her own work, and take full charge of her babies, it is necessary to know all about these things to be a real home-maker. This is where the education of which Lady Balfour speaks comes in."

GRACIE'S BACK

Here they are, folks—George Burns, Gracie Allen and their adopted daughter Sandra, caught by the camera on the completion of their recent power drive from Hollywood to New York. George and Gracie stopped off in Chicago to pick up a playmate for Sandra, but as Gracie remarked, "It just could not find anything to match her." The noted comers are on the air with Ferde Grofe's Orchestra over the Columbia network every Wednesday at 6 p.m., P.S.T.

The Canada sailed from Southampton on August 10 and arrived at Cristobal on schedule yesterday evening. While in Victoria she will berth at the Ogden Point piers and will be open for inspection by the general public.

The Canada is a sister ship to the America and Europa, and with these vessels will provide the company with a monthly service between British Columbia and Europe.

She was built in the East Asiatic Company's shipyard at Naarvik, Copenhagen, and is 465 feet long and can maintain a speed of seventeen knots. She has accommodations for 100 passengers, and is carrying a heavy cargo of mail.

Seventeen of her cabins have private baths.

SOVIET-U.S. STRAIN GREAT

Roosevelt to Make Statement on Relations After Talking With Hull

Washington, Aug. 28.—Soviet-United States relations were undergoing severe strain to-day, though it was not generally believed there would be a complete break, at least immediately.

President Roosevelt is expected to hold an important conference soon with Secretary of State Cordell Hull to canvass the situation in the light of Moscow's flat "rejection" of a United States protest against Communist activities held to be unfriendly interference in this country's affairs. Only after the conference is any announcement of the course of the United States expected.

Washington, Aug. 28.—Soviet-United States relations were undergoing severe strain to-day, though it was not generally believed there would be a complete break, at least immediately.

President Roosevelt is expected to hold an important conference soon with Secretary of State Cordell Hull to canvass the situation in the light of Moscow's flat "rejection" of a United States protest against Communist activities held to be unfriendly interference in this country's affairs. Only after the conference is any announcement of the course of the United States expected.

Empress In Port With Many People

Canada Docked This Morning From the Orient and Honolulu; Returning Tourists and Business People Among Passengers

Reporting a fine trip across the Pacific from the Orient and Hawaii, Capt. A. J. Hosken, R.N.R., brought the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Canada into Victoria this morning at 9:30 o'clock. Two hours later the big liner proceeded to Vancouver.

Close to 500 passengers were aboard the Empress when she docked. Many of these were tourists, returning from summer visits to Japan, China and the Philippine Islands.

After discharging cargo in Vancouver, the Empress of Canada will return here Saturday morning and enter drydock at Esquimalt for her annual summer overhaul.

Rev. Dr. W. J. Sipple, of Victoria, who took a tour party to the Orient in July returned by the Canada this morning. He reported a fine trip and said he and the members of his party saw a great deal of the Far East.

C. F. Rittinghausen, prominent industrial chemist of Frankfort-on-Main, Germany, arrived by the Empress after a business tour of the Orient. He is en route to Germany.

HONGKONG PEOPLE

Several well-known residents of Hongkong arrived by the Empress. They include W. H. Lebert, manager of the Java-China-Japan Line, with Mrs. Lebert and Miss Lebert; A. E. H. Burn, principal of the American Express Company, with Mrs. Burn; Mrs. R. Sanger, wife of an official of the Standard-Vacuum Oil Company, and Mrs. J. B. Newell, wife of Commander J. B. Newell, deputy harbor master at Hongkong.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Boetticher and their son, prominent residents of Evansville, Indiana, returned from a summer spent in Japan. Judge and Mrs. T. B. Ramey of St. Louis were aboard, their way home from the Hawaiian Islands.

From Mukden came D. F. G. Polt and W. Storms, both connected with the Standard-Vacuum Oil Company, going to New York.

On a trip around the world, J. T. Mackay of the Bellini firm of James Mackay and Sons was another arrival here by the Empress.

Miss Evelyn Haines of Port Alberni was among the many Pacific Coast school teachers returning from holidays in the Hawaiian Islands.

Brunsdon's Boys Are Crowned Island Softball Champions

THE SPORTS MIRROR

WITH LEAGUE and English Cup honors as their goal, eighty-eight clubs comprising the four divisions of the English Football Association on Saturday start the long winter season that ends on May 2, 1936. While footballers in Scotland have been engaged in league warfare for three weeks, players in England and Wales have been busy with intensive training to fit them for the eight-month grind.

Improved economic conditions in Great Britain give directors of the various clubs ground for optimism and it is expected that many teams in the lower divisions of the league, as well as a number of senior sides, will operate with a balance on the right side of the ledger.

Arsenal, with a handsome profit gained from last season's play, is out to create a record this year. The Gunners by again winning the championship of the football league last May equalled Huddersfield Town's record of three championships in successive seasons. Although a number of their players are on the sick list the colorful Londoners have added to their roster and there is little doubt they will be a power to reckon with in the forthcoming campaign.

The fortunes of Brentford, promoted from the second division with Bolton Wanderers, will be watched with more than usual interest. The Bees, after years in the third division of the league, started a meteoric ascent in 1933. Two seasons were spent in the second division and last spring they won the championship of that section and a place among the country's best soccer teams. Bolton Wanderers are old campaigners in senior company. They need out West Ham United in the race for promotion.

Soccer enthusiasts throughout England regret the return of Tottenham Hotspur to the second division after two years with the leading clubs. The White Hart Lane outfit always has been high in the list of England's famous teams. Leicester City which accompanies the Spurs is another old club that has fallen away in the last few years. Up from the junior divisions are Doncaster Rovers one of the oldest teams in English soccer, and Charlton Athletic, a London side that walked away with the southern section championship last year.

Of the second division teams relegated to the minor leagues for this season, Notts County will play in the southern section and Oldham Athletic in the northern. Disappointment over the showing of many teams led this summer to one of the greatest shuffles of managers in recent years. Percy Smith resigned the leadership of Tottenham and his place will be taken by Jack Treadwell. Among the senior teams W. Hampson takes charge at Leeds. T. Mather leads Newcastle United and R. McGroarty is the new Stoke mentor.

There will be no change this year in regard to the number of teams promoted and relegated at the end of the season. Derby County's proposal to increase the number of clubs from two to four failed to win approval at the annual meeting of the football league. The Derby officials also withdrew a scheme to increase the fees of referees and linesmen as a new pooling scheme is being worked out. A new conference of league clubs, called by Manchester City, is to become an annual assembly held in co-operation with the league management committee on the eve of the English Cup final.

Beat Hillcrest Nine With Ease; Play Vancouver

Score Is 8 to 2 in Deciding Game For Title; Palmer Winning Hurler

B.C. SERIES TO OPEN SATURDAY

Outfitting their opponents 11 to 9 and playing airtight ball in the pinches, Brunsdon's Boys, Victoria champions, lifted the Vancouver Island softball championship at the Athletic Park yesterday evening, defeating Hillcrest Lumber Company, Duncan, 8 to 2, in the third and deciding clash.

With well over 1,000 spectators on hand, Brunsdon's got a great hand on their victory. They scored New Method Laundry, Victoria, as island titleholders, and earned the right to oppose the mainland winners in the British Columbia play-offs at Vancouver on Saturday. The locals will be up against stiff competition on the mainland, but are confident of making a good showing.

PALMER PITCHES WELL
On the mound for Brunsdon's yesterday evening was the dynamic Red Palmer, who has pitched the Esquimalt boys to the majority of their victories this season. He worked in all three of the island finals, and at the conclusion of yesterday evening's game Palmer was carried from the field on the shoulders of his teammates. Palmer allowed nine hits, struck out three and walked one. Lovell, who worked for Hillcrest, was lucky for eleven safe blows, fanned one and issued five walks. The Duncan hurler also cut loose with two wild pitches.

During the nine innings Hillcrest had nine men left on the bases, as compared to six for Brunsdon's. Three fast double plays were pulled off, two by Brunsdon's and one by Hillcrest. Brunsdon's got away on the right foot by scoring single runs in the second and third innings to take a lead they never gave up. Hillcrest scored one in the fifth, only to have the Victoria club mark up two in their half of the inning. In the seventh the visitors garnered their final tally with Brunsdon's getting one in the last of the seventh and three in the eighth. Getting two hits out of three trips to the plate, Munro, Jacklin and Palmer led the batting parade for Brunsdon's.

CUPS PRESENTED
Following the game Brunsdon's boys were presented with the various trophies they won in their march to the island title. The trophies included the Francis Memorial Trophy for the island honors; George Patton Cup, emblematic of the lower island title, and the Colston Cup for the local A section honors.

Gordon Wallace Reaches Ottawa

Ottawa, Aug. 28.—Gordon Wallace, Vancouver, Canada's welterweight boxing champion, was in Ottawa today for his coming title match with Eddie Carroll, Ottawa's challenger, to be held here September 6. Wallace looked to be in perfect condition despite his long train journey by way of Chicago. He was accompanied by his manager, Jack Allen, also of Vancouver. Wallace, on his first visit to the capital, will resume his training routine immediately.

Scores Dodo On The Wrong Hole

Port Arthur, Aug. 28.—There was only one thing wrong when Johnny Elyria shot a hole-in-one here. It was the wrong hole. Johnny led-off from the eighteenth tee, but the ball sliced badly and rolled neatly into the cup on the ninth hole.

Strange as it seems, the most northern golf course in the world is also one of the most exclusive in the world. It is located just south of the Arctic Circle at Chesterfield Inlet on the Hudson Bay. Its membership totals three—a mounted policeman, a missionary, and a trader.

The course has only three holes—these are played six times to make an eighteen-hole round, par for which is seventy-two. The fairways are northern moss, and the greens are made from sand brought up from the coast. For caddies the members' warship took it by surprise and fired a torpedo. Too late to dive or get

One of the most miraculous escapes from death during the World War was that experienced by the officers and crew of the German U-boat 35 in late 1917. The submarine was cruising at the surface when an Italian out of the way, members of the crew deck helplessly watched the torpedo head straight for the midsection of the submarine.

SONS-EAGLES MEET TO-NIGHT

Senior Baseball League Nines to Battle at Athletic Park at 6 o'clock

One of the keenest games of this season's play is expected this evening when the Sons of Canada baseball nine stacks up against the Eagles in the third of the five-game series of the post-season play-offs for the Victoria Senior Baseball League championship at the Athletic Park at 6 o'clock. The Sons have two successive wins to their credit and victory this evening will give them the league pennant, while a win for the bird-men will prolong the series.

It is expected that Sonny Walker, ace mound man, will get the call for the Sons of Canada with Mase Kuwabara as his battery mate. Alie Dick and Doug Bone, young twirlers, will be on hand to relieve Walker if the going gets too rough.

Manager Dave Easter will in all probability call on Louie Leonard, Eagles' young star, to do their hurling and Henry Woodford for the catching. Leo Holden will call the balls and strikes

Campbell Arrives For Another Try

Great British Automobile Racing Driver Reaches New York En Route to Utah For Speed Attempt With Bluebird; Tells of Dangers of War in Europe

By EDWARD J. NEIL

New York, Aug. 28.—Anxious to attack his old record and get back where the war clouds are gathering, Sir Malcolm Campbell, the fifty-year-old Briton who drives with the winds, landed here yesterday, bound for the salt beds of Utah.

"I'm afraid there's going to be a fearful show over there," he said, more worried about the Ethiopian tangle than over the dangers he faces striving to pilot his mighty Bluebird racing car 300 miles an hour. He set the present mark at 276.316 on the sands at Daytona Beach, Fla., in February, and twice nearly lost his life doing it.

With him was his fifteen-year-old son Donald, named after his best friend, Donald Hay, who flew with him in France. "We were in a fight together," he explained, "when Hay was shot down and killed. I always said if I had a son I'd name him Donald, and I did."

His hair perhaps a trifle thinner, but his eyes clear as ever, face gaunt, nerves steady, Campbell talked freely of his hopes and ambitions in Utah, but more freely still of the dangers of war abroad. "If America would only back up Great Britain," he said, "just tell the world that they won't allow another war to start, there would be none. We belong together. No one would dare defy the might of Great Britain and the United States combined."

"I'm shooting for 300," he said, "but more important than that were to have we can take them."

making scientific tests this time never tried before. That data alone, even if the present record stands, will be well worth the trip.

An electrically driven camera will record the readings of all the instruments on his dashboard when Campbell starts his runs on the twelve-mile rock salt stretch about dawn on September 1. The readings will show him how much power is swallowed up by the 2,800-horsepower thunderbolt in overcoming wind resistance, and rolling resistance.

"We have theories," he said, "but no proofs. You haven't a chance to watch your instruments and try to remember what they recorded while traveling at 275 miles an hour. His car is unchanged from the Daytona runs and he has forty tries. He figures that at the salt bed altitude of 4,100 feet, his car will lose 18 per cent of its power, but gain 14 per cent from lessened wind resistance, a net debit of 4 per cent. He may live in a tent on the desert, or stay in Windover, a town of 600 population a few miles from the race course.

Nanaimo Welcomes Its Soccer Team

Nanaimo, Aug. 28.—Four thousand fans met the Nanaimo City football team yesterday evening and escorted them through the main streets with a torchlight procession, on their return from an unsuccessful quest of the Dominion football championship. Although they scored ten goals out of eighteen, the City lost to Montreal Airdrie by one goal to nil in the fourth game of what was to have been a best two out of three.

"We were simply not built to stand the four games," explained Captain Jimmy Knight on his return here. "The Airdrie were too heavy for us in a long drawn-out series, and we lost. Most of them are Old Country players, and they are certainly hard to get excited. However, we are not ashamed of our record, and if we can hang together for another year I believe we can take them."

Los Angeles, Aug. 28.—Jack Milne, Pasadena, chalked up another victory at the Gilmore Stadium motorcycle races yesterday evening by winning the four-lap scratch final, finishing fifty yards ahead of M. Wain, who placed second.

Rusty Roberts was third, and Bert Spencer, one of the Australian riders, was fourth. Milne's time was 1 minute 4.3 seconds.

Judy and his mates defeated Ponca City 2 to 1. Judy was purchased by the St. Louis Cardinals recently with instructions to report next spring.

Following the meet the caddies will attend a luncheon in the clubhouse, at which time the prizes will be presented.

Last year's champion, Bobby Spaven, will not defend his title this year, so there will be a wide-open scramble during the day to crown a new titleholder.

Medalist and Two Former Finalists Beaten in National Tournament at Minneapolis; Marion McDougall, Portland, Reaches Third Round

Minneapolis, Aug. 28.—In a game that put a premium on wind-boring shots, a series of surprising upsets hit the national women's golf championship at Interlachen yesterday, sweeping aside the tournament medalist and three former finalists.

As the field of sixty-four qualifiers was reduced to sixteen after nine hours of play, Jean Bacon, Providence, R.I., who captured the medal Monday with a 79, was out of the picture, and so was Dorothy Traung, the San Francisco girl, who gave Virginia Van Wie, retired champion, a battle to the thirty-fifth hole in last year's final.

Miss Traung was defeated in the first round, 3 and 1, by Betty Hays, one of a quartet of young Minneapolis girls who gave the home town folks a thrill by surviving the first two rounds.

MRS. VARE ADVANCES
Led by Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare, Philadelphia, hot after her sixth championship, the other favorites stuck with comfortable margins. They were Mrs. O. S. Hill, Kansas City; Mrs. Maureen Orcutt, Crewe, Coral Gables, Fla.; Mrs. Marion Mile, Lexington, Ky., and Charlotte Glutting, West Orange, N.J.

Miss Baur was eliminated in round two, 2 and 1, by Fritz Stifel, Wheeling, W. Va., who produced her first upset in the morning by defeating Lucille Robinson, former western champion from Des Moines, Ia., on the twentieth hole.

FORMER FINALISTS OUT
The other two former finalists to fall were Mary K. Browne, Cleveland, 1924 runner-up, who was upset, 1 up, by Patricia Stephenson, Minneapolis, and Mrs. Wright Goss, Short Hills, N.J., 1926 finalist, defeated by Elizabeth Abbott, Los Angeles, 4 and 2. Both were eliminated in the first round. In addition to Miss Stephenson, the Minneapolis survivors were Patty Berg, Des Moines, and Mrs. Austin Pardue, the former Dorothy Klotz.

Mrs. Vare disposed of her rivals yesterday with almost flawless golf. In the morning, she shot even par for fourteen holes to rout Edith Berg, Cleveland, 5 and 4; in the afternoon, she slid three over par, but led all the way to eliminate Bernice Wall, Chicago, 4 and 3.

MRS. HILL WINS
Mrs. Hill captured both her matches 7 and 6, defeating Mrs. Charles Eddis, Toronto, Canada, and Mrs. Mont Reid, Cincinnati, 6 and 4.

Miss Milne breezed into the third round with a 6 and 5 triumph over Mrs. Marjorie Letts, Chicago, and a 4 and 2 victory over Betty Hays, conqueror of Miss Traung.

Miss Glutting took a 2 and 1 decision over Mrs. Tom Wallace, Tulsa, and a 3 and 2 conquest over Peggy Wattles, Buffalo.

Only two extra hole matches were played out of the forty-eight yesterday, both going to the twentieth hole. In addition to Miss Traung's victory over Miss Robinson, Marion McDougall, Portland, Ore., five down through the first six holes of her second round engagement, rallied to beat Mrs. Tim Lowry, Chicago. Miss McDougall won her morning match with Marian Leachman, Berkeley, 4 and 2.

Richmond Takes Lacrosse Clash
Vancouver, Aug. 28.—The league-leading Richmond team noosed out North Shore Indians, 14 to 13, in an intercity box lacrosse game here yesterday evening. The result had no effect on the league standing, as Richmond, Vancouver Bluebirds and Indians have already won into the semi-finals in that order.

Trailing 8 to 3 at half time, Indians hit a scoring spurge in the third quarter that netted them nine goals, but were able to collect only one in the final, while Richmond slipped in four.

ONTARIO LACROSSE

CITY TO TAKE WORSTED MILL

Final Foreclosure Action Expected to Be Taken at End of Next Week

Final order of foreclosure, which will bring the B.C. Worsted Mills Ltd. property into the hands of the city without any ties, is expected to be issued before the end of next week, it was learned at the City Hall to-day.

The property, on which the company has $26,700 in default, would have been in the city's hands this week had not a court vacation prevented issuance of the order.

The action will terminate a long series of negotiations with the company for which the city guaranteed bonds amounting to $125,000, plus interest set up to 5 per cent.

"The worsted mill has come back to us and we're just adding with it until such time as we may dispose of it," Mayor David Leeming commented to-day. He stated the terms which had sold the company the machinery and other connected with the organization of the mill no longer retained any interest in it.

Several tentative bids had been made for the property, but none had been carried through, the mayor added.

BONDS GUARANTEED

On the vote of the people, Victoria backed the worsted mills to the extent of guaranteeing its $125,000 bond issue in 1928.

The understanding at the time was that the company would pay interest to the city along with installments towards a sinking fund which would eventually retire the debt. For a while the company met its commitments, but ceased to pay about three years ago.

Since then it has gone behind to the amount of $26,700, including interest paid by the city in default of the company's payment to the amount of $21,875, insurance totaling $4,800 and taxes amounting to $231.

NOT CALLABLE

Should the aggregate be met within the next few days, no action will be taken, but informed circles considered that possibility to be remote.

The bonds on the property cover a twenty-five-year term, seven of which have already expired. For the next eighteen years, according to present indications, the city will have to meet interest payments and then refund the principal. The bonds are not callable.

INDIANS PAY LAST TRIBUTE

Impressive Rites Conducted at Burial of Father A. E. Allard

In keeping with his work for many years past among the Indians of British Columbia's northland, burial services for Rev. Father A. E. Allard, Roman Catholic priest, were carried out with simple rites, according to mail address received from Constable J. Meek of the provincial police detachment at McDame Creek.

Indians for miles around gathered to pay their last silent tribute to the man who had done so much for them. Constable Meek wrote, and it was an impressive sight to witness the burial on a knoll near the school at McDame. It was fitting that the burial ground was on a high spot which was visible for some distance up and down the river.

As each of the older Indians passed the coffin they threw handfuls of soil into the grave and muttered their deep sympathy as they walked away.

It was significant, Constable Meek said, that as the service was being carried out, the oldest Indian in the tribe, Mrs. Pretty, walked slowly toward the ceremony with the youngest lad in the village, who was barely able to walk beside her.

FUNERAL TO-MORROW

Mr. Blair was born in Scotland and came to Canada sixty-eight years ago taking up farming in Manitoba. For the last twenty-three years he has been residing in Victoria.

He is survived by five sons, Archibald, Vancouver; John, Manitoba; Thomas, Alberta; Hugh, Ladner, B.C.; and William, in Manitoba; three daughters, Mrs. W. McCulloch, Mrs. T. Love and Mrs. J. Coxworth, all in Manitoba.

LAST RITES HELD

Farewell Dinner of El Capitan Club Is Scheduled For To-night

"Participating Insurance" was the subject under discussion in to-day's forenoon session of the El Capitan leading producers club convention of the California Western States Life Insurance Company at the Empress Hotel.

The session was conducted by Ray P. Cox, vice-president and manager of agencies, and A. H. Hakenson, president.

The highlights of the morning business included an explanation of five new participating policy contracts, new illustrated briefs for the success idea, the swing of the bond pendulum and the comparative value of life insurance as property.

Frank E. Russell presided over a subsequent discussion on "Conservation of Business," those participating in the talk being Grant Taggart, J. V. Hart, Paul Taylor, Warner Cockrill, W. W. Johnstone and Wendell S. Woodruff.

Golf devotees attending the convention this afternoon repaired to the course of the Victoria Golf Club at Oak Bay, where they competed in the El Capitan tournament finals. Other delegates are enjoying a fishing trip to Brentwood and sightseeing, teas and shopping will occupy the time of the ladies.

Scenic tours over the Malahat and to Butchart's Gardens were enjoyed yesterday afternoon in ideal weather. The visitors were delighted with the beauty of the sunken gardens, at "Benvenuto."

The farewell dinner party of the convention will be held in the Crystal ballroom at the Empress Hotel at 7:30 o'clock this evening under the chairmanship of President O. J. Laird. A final business session will be held to-morrow morning and at 5 o'clock to-morrow afternoon the delegates will say farewell to Victoria, sailing by the C.P.R. steamer for Seattle.

LIQUOR STORE TO STAY OPEN

Government Will Not Close All-night Premises in Van- couver

The all-night liquor store in Vancouver, which Mayor McGeer declares is in a measure responsible for some of the crime in and around Vancouver, will not be closed, Premier Pattullo stated this morning.

Following a robbery at the store Monday night, Mayor McGeer stated he would seek to have the store closed, and would call upon the citizens of Vancouver to support him in a petition to the provincial government.

Attorney-General Sloan, under whose department the stores come, was absent from his office this morning.

Officials recalled that the all-night liquor store was established in Vancouver at the request of the city on the grounds that it was essential to curb bootlegging.

With liquor available at the store beyond the usual hours the need for seeking it from bootleggers would be eliminated was the argument advanced at that time.

LOGANBERRY CROP GOOD

Better Than Anticipated, Says Report of Department of Agriculture

All loganberries have been picked on the island, and the crop this year is much better than was anticipated, according to a report from the provincial Department of Agriculture. Blackberries are still moving, and apples are becoming more plentiful.

Yellow Transparents are over, though Duchesne are still being picked. Wealthy and Gravenstein apples are showing good color, and the first few have already been harvested. Bartlett pears are maturing nicely, the report says, and peach plums and other early plum varieties are on the market.

The first crop of greenhouse tomatoes and cucumbers has been cleaned up, and preparations are being made for the second crop.

Single-handed Capture Made

George B. Scott Arrested in Saanich By Constable Stevenson

After a tussle in the basement of a Saanich home with Constable Thomas Stevenson, George Bernard Scott, escaped prisoner, was recaptured at 1 o'clock this morning. Scott had been at large since 5 o'clock Monday morning when he escaped a police guard at the Jubilee Hospital, where he was receiving medical treatment.

He appeared in the city police court this morning, charged with the theft of a suit of clothes and a fountain pen from A. Hensley, a patient in the hospital. Police alleged Scott wanted to a general "screw," while he took the suit and made his escape down the fire-escape.

Police stated this morning Scott would not be charged with an escape from lawful custody since he was not under guard at the time he gained his liberty.

He asked a remand for a week when the charge was read to him this morning. This was opposed by C. L. Harrison, prosecutor, and he was remanded until to-morrow morning to secure counsel. He reserved plea.

WORK IS PRAISED

The work of Constable Stevenson in making the arrest single-handed was praised by Chief Heatley this morning.

Stevenson, who was not on duty yesterday, worked on a "hunch" of his own and kept a house at 887 Cloverdale Avenue, Saanich, under observation for three hours. He saw no sign of activity in the premises during that period and just before deciding to leave he thought he would look around.

With drawn gun in one hand and a flashlight in the other, he walked into the basement. He saw Scott in a corner near the woodpile.

"Stand where you are and don't move," the constable ordered. The reply was a flying piece of cord which knocked the flashlight from his hand and narrowly missed his head. The constable then made a dive for Scott and grabbed him before he was able to escape.

After about ten minutes grappling he handcuffed the prisoner and drove him to headquarters.

At the time of his escape Scott was being held by police in connection with the robbery of $5,000 worth of jewels from the home of D. O. Cameron, George Road. He was committed to trial with John M. Caird at the preliminary hearing, and was awaiting hearing in the higher court.

Arising out of the escape, the police commission is expected to hold a meeting within the next few days to deal with the case of Constable G. I. Greenwood, who was posted at the hospital.

RELIC OF OLD NORTH FOUND

Trade Knife 100 Years Old Unearthed at McDame Creek; Sent to Victoria

An interesting relic of yesterday in British Columbia's frozen northland has been received at provincial police headquarters from McDame Creek in the form of a manufactured iron knife which was uncovered near the site of the Hudson's Bay Company's original store.

The knife, in an excellent state of preservation, although the handle is missing, was sent to Assistant Commissioner Parsons by Constable J. Meek, in charge of McDame Creek. It was discovered an inch below the surface during digging operations.

Only one resident at McDame, an aged Indian woman, could recall ever having seen such knives being used. They were trade knives and formed a valuable part of the Indian hunter's equipment.

IMPRESSED BY HAWAII MUSIC

Nathaniel Shilkret Visitor to Victoria To-day Aboard Empress of Canada

Much impressed by the pure native music of the Hawaiian Islands, which he hopes to work into a suite, Nathaniel Shilkret, internationally known composer, radio artist and concert pianist, passed through Victoria this morning aboard the S. S. Empress of Canada. He was accompanied by Mrs. Shilkret.

"I studied the music of Hawaii during my stay in Honolulu," Mr. Shilkret said this morning, "and I believe I found enough to work into a suite on Hawaiian music, which as yet is still in my mind."

In the old-time music of Hawaii Mr. Shilkret said he found traces of German folk songs, which were brought out to the islands many years ago. Modern music, he said, could not be used in the suite which he has in mind.

Mr. and Mrs. Shilkret had only nine days in the Hawaiian Islands. It was their first trip and they went out from San Francisco. They continued this morning with the Empress to Vancouver and will return to their New York home across Canada.

"We will stop off at Banff and see something of the famous Canadian Rockies," Mrs. Shilkret said this morning.

It was their first visit to western Canada and they were off the Empress after the docked at the Ribault piers. They took a two-hour drive about the city and its environs and returned much impressed with the beauties of the place.

"The climate to-day is just like the climate we left in Honolulu," Mr. and Mrs. Shilkret agreed.

Mr. Shilkret is small of stature. Although his works are much lighter and more in the "popular field," Mr. Shilkret ranks with Victor Herbert in the field of contemporary American music.

COMPETITION IN COPPER

Africa Rivals B.C., Says A. R. Thomson, Here With Hon. J. W. Downie

In copper production, British Columbia and other sections of Canada may be good, but in the opinion of Alexander R. "Wankie" Thomson, one of the world's best-known mining men, this country, like the rest of the copper world, may look for keen competition from Rhodesia and the Belgian Congo.

Member of a Rhodesian party, which includes Hon. John W. Downie, C.M.G., former high commissioner for Southern Rhodesia in London, Mr. Thomson is at the Empress Hotel to-day.

They are visiting Canada for the first time and while on the coast were entertained by the B.C. Chamber of Mines. Both are accompanied by their wives and families.

"Wankie" Thomson is president of the Rhodesia Chamber of Mines, is a member of the Southern Rhodesian Legislature and heads the $5,000,000 Wankie Collieries.

It is a fact which makes possible the copper development which at present amounts to 100,000 tons annually in the Belgian Congo and 150,000 tons yearly in northern Rhodesia.

Southern Rhodesia, unlike northern Rhodesia, which is a crown colony, is self-governing, and is populated by 1,250,000 blacks and 50,000 whites.

As a youth, Mr. Thomson left Scotland for South Africa, and he served as a trooper during the Jameson Raid days and has seen hard service in numerous scraps with rebellious natives.

Mr. Downie, who is travelling with Mr. Thomson on a holiday trip, also went to South Africa as a youth and worked on railways. He was general manager of Farmers' Co-operative Ltd. in 1920, and after serving as minister of mines and public works in Southern Rhodesia, was in 1930 appointed high commissioner for that territory in London.

He was a delegate to the empire trade conference in 1932.

While on the coast, Messrs. Downie and Thomson met F. P. Burden, former Agent-General for British Columbia in London.

The funeral of Francis Older, who passed away last Saturday, took place yesterday afternoon. Canon F. A. P. Chadwick officiated and the service was largely attended by friends. The hymn sung was "Abide With Me." The casket was surrounded by many beautiful flowers.

The following were pallbearers: J. Alderson, W. Harvey, D. Byers, H. Burton, R. Mather and G. Faggett. The remains were laid to rest at Ross Bay Cemetery.

A man who gave his name as Frank Stevens was arrested by Detective Walter Caldwell and Pearson Woodburn this morning and charged with forgery. He will appear in the City Police Court to-morrow morning.

SYBIL LOVES IT
In a far corner of the stage, Buddy Longworth, "still" cameraman, is making some shots of six-year-old Sybil Jason, Warner's "Shirley Temple," who was brought here all the way from British South Africa. She is a cute youngster - sings, dances, and acts like a veteran.

At the moment she is getting a big kick out of sticking her head through a hole in the prop fence while Buddy photographs her.

"I love to have my picture taken," says the young miss.

They are still trying to get that scene between Armstrong and Batters. It is a long one and Joe is having trouble remembering his lines. Curtis is taking it good-naturedly, though, which is unusual for him. He usually blows up when things go wrong.

Finally it is finished. Bob heads for the water cooler. He has a cold and is trying to break it up by drinking lots of water. The camera crew starts moving for a new set-up. That means twenty or thirty minutes of inactivity. Also the end of the eight-seeing trip.

ANGRY AND FEAR BRING BLOOD PRESSURE RISE

Intense Emotion May Have Serious Effect; Temperature Is Another Factor in Quick Change Watched by Physicians

By DR. MORRIS FISHER

Since the tension of our blood vessels is controlled by impulses that come from the nervous system, any intense emotion may bring about a serious and often far too rapid a rise in the blood pressure.

For this very reason doctors are likely to ask a patient to sit quietly for ten or fifteen minutes after he reaches the office before they measure the blood pressure.

Fear, anxiety, anger, embarrassment, and passion are some of the emotions associated with severe rises in the pressure.

The temperature may change suddenly in a room and persons in that room with arterial systems easily affected will show the change by a corresponding change in blood pressure.

Sudden cold causes contraction in the small blood vessels near the surface of the body and with this comes a rise in the diastolic blood pressure. A rise in the heat of the surroundings has an opposite effect. When the diastolic pressure rises, the systolic pressure will rise to keep pace with it.

Presence of a fever is usually associated with a reduction of both the systolic and diastolic blood pressures, the first being the pressure when the heart contracts and the second after contraction.

A severe fall in the blood pressure associated with fever may mean that the heart muscle has been damaged by the infection. Particularly in people convalescing from influenza there may be a low blood pressure for a considerable time.

These signs should be taken as an indication of the need of prolonged rest after infectious diseases.

When we get up suddenly after lying down, the blood pressure rises suddenly. In people whose blood vessel system is not in good condition, the rise in pressure expected with this change in posture may not occur or occurs slowly and the physician may use the test in this way as a measure of the efficiency of the blood vessel system.

The numerous ways in which changes in the blood pressure may occur are of course significant in regulating the lives of those who suffer from either high or low blood pressure.

Those with high blood pressure must be exceedingly careful about exertion, about sudden changes in posture, and about sudden stresses on their emotions. Those with low blood pressure are especially in danger of infections like influenza and of undernutrition or malnutrition.

People who are overweight should have their blood pressure measured at frequent intervals.

RUINS OF TWO CIVILIZATIONS

FOR MORE than twenty centuries a mysterious stone idol, about eight feet tall, has stood facing the east, on a height 12,000 feet above sea level, twelve miles from Lake Titicaca, in Bolivia. Archaeologists say it is the sun-god of Tiahuanacu, but further they know little.

This monolith, now fearfully scarred by bullets from rifles of soldiers who have camped near there, is one of the few ruins of probably two great ancient civilizations. It is traced back to a primitive Mongol race, the contemporaries, probably great predecessors, of the Mayas of Central America. But later another race, the Aymaras, came along and built upon the remains left by their predecessors, leaving a few signs, like this sun-god, of the earlier inhabitants of that area. To-day descendants of the Aymaras live here, but they have no legends or traditions about these ruins.

In 1916 Bolivia issued the stamp shown here, illustrating this monolith.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calumet—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Ready to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food does not digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sick and the world looks pink.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A more powerful movement must get at the cause. It takes three good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmonize, gentle, yet containing in making bile flow freely. Prof. E. V. Appleton of Britain Advances Theory Layer of Great Heat in Earth's Upper Atmosphere Makes Men's Plans Hopeless

Associated Press
London, Aug. 28.—Man will never be able to reach the moon, says Prof. E. V. Appleton, chairman of the British National Committee for Radio-telegraphy.

Prof. Appleton advanced the theory to-day that in the upper atmosphere encompassing the earth there is a vast layer of intense heat hitherto unknown to science.

Dr. Appleton was quoted by The London Daily Mail as asserting this "electrical inferno" of a temperature of 1,000 degrees centigrade constitutes an impassable obstacle to the age-old ambition of shooting a rocket with a human cargo to the moon.

The scientist, who discussed his discoveries with members of the Royal Society before making his announcement, said the disclosure of a fiery globe-encasing band would upset the whole system of research now being carried out by means of radio, short waves, as well as the possibility of harnessing micro-waves for radio transmission.

With delegates from all sections of the province attending the annual meeting of the Regional Council of Canadian Clubs in British Columbia was held yesterday in Nanaimo, D. Neil Hossie of Vancouver was re-elected president, F. B. Fowler, Victoria, vice-president, and Tom Brown, Vancouver, was named secretary-treasurer.

The day's programme included luncheon, a business meeting and dinner at the Sunset Inn, Qualicum. The luncheon was held at the Malaspina Hotel.

The meeting effected amendment to the constitution which will permit the election of two regional council members, one from Vancouver Island and the other from the interior of the province.

Reports of various clubs were heard and delegates from Okanagan sought to have more prominent speakers address their clubs. The speakers they had heard were interesting but they asked that internationally prominent men, who appeared at Victoria and Vancouver, luncheons, should be heard at interior points.

Reports of the women's clubs indicated a progressive view, delegates from Victoria, the interior, Alberni, Qualicum, Courtenay and Vancouver being heard.

A discussion on obtaining a uniform version of "O Canada," to be sung at luncheons, was heard, it being pointed out that three versions of the Canadian anthem had been heard that day.

As after-dinner speaker, the delegates heard Professor H. F. Angus of the University of British Columbia, who spoke on the political situation in Alberta as he viewed it during a recent visit.

Nanaimo clubs were given hearty thanks for their hospitality during the sessions.

Finals were scheduled in various departments of the Victoria and district junior tennis championships at the Victoria Lawn courts to-morrow, as late matches were being played off to-day.

Yesterday several extra set matches forced six listed fixtures off the bill. They were being played to-day.

BOY SEES CRASH; IS STRUCK BLIND

Associated Press
Williamsport, Pa., Aug. 28.—A boy stricken blind by the shock of seeing an airplane crash in flames groped his way slowly back to sight to-day in a darkened hospital room.

The boy, thirteen-year-old Frank Elliott, was at the Williamsport airport Sunday when George Forney of Gettysburg plunged to his death. Frank awoke Monday to total blindness.

At a hospital, partial sight of one eye returned late Monday. To-day he could see from both eyes, though with weakened vision.

People of Alberta looked upon William Aberhart as the Moses who would lead them out of slavery. They did not realize he would only lead them into a wilderness. J. King Gordon, C.C.F. candidate for Victoria, said in an address at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday evening.

Touching briefly on the Social Credit party success in Alberta, Mr. Gordon said he attended the final meeting addressed by Mr. Aberhart in Edmonton and had an opportunity to study him. The speaker voiced the opinion the Alberta Social Credit leader was a fanatic and a demagogue.

Arnold Webster, president of the British Columbia branch of the C.C.F., gave an address on "The Way Out." Socialism was held up as the solution of the problems of the day. There never would be economic security under a capitalist system, he said. Once exploitation of the individual was removed the dividing line between classes would disappear.

Rev. Robert Connell presided.

Plans for the Victoria campaign were discussed during the meeting and confidence was expressed over the enthusiasm that C.C.F. meetings had stirred, and at the large audiences that had turned out at meetings addressed by the Victoria candidate.

It was announced that J. S. Woods, M.P., Dominion leader of the C.C.F., was expected in Victoria next Tuesday evening. Further particulars regarding his visit would be announced later, the meeting was told.

For two days and nights the insects have fluttered and fiddled about the city, attracted by the bright lights at night and apparently having no place else to go in the daylight. GIVES VIEWS ON ABERHART

Will Lead Alberta Into Wilderness, Says King Gordon

People of Alberta looked upon William Aberhart as the Moses who would lead them out of slavery. They did not realize he would only lead them into a wilderness. J. King Gordon, C.C.F. candidate for Victoria, said in an address at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday evening.

Touching briefly on the Social Credit party success in Alberta, Mr. Gordon said he attended the final meeting addressed by Mr. Aberhart in Edmonton and had an opportunity to study him. The speaker voiced the opinion the Alberta Social Credit leader was a fanatic and a demagogue.

Arnold Webster, president of the British Columbia branch of the C.C.F., gave an address on "The Way Out." Socialism was held up as the solution of the problems of the day. There never would be economic security under a capitalist system, he said. Once exploitation of the individual was removed the dividing line between classes would disappear.

Rev. Robert Connell presided.

Plans for the Victoria campaign were discussed during the meeting and confidence was expressed over the enthusiasm that C.C.F. meetings had stirred, and at the large audiences that had turned out at meetings addressed by the Victoria candidate.

It was announced that J. S. Woods, M.P., Dominion leader of the C.C.F., was expected in Victoria next Tuesday evening. Further particulars regarding his visit would be announced later, the meeting was told.

Black Bay, Labrador, lays claim to being the smallest community in the world. Its lone inhabitant, Ernest Doane, abandoned his taxidermy business years ago to become a trapper.

Leonardo Da Vinci, famed artist, was the most versatile genius of his age, and he lived during the age of geniuses, the Renaissance. His views, had they been published, would have revolutionized the scientific world of that time, but no one knew how to read them.

England has 2,139,000 telephones in use, with annual calls totaling 1,430,000,000. Both telephones and radios are controlled by the postal department in that country.

Ninety per cent of the world's clothing is made of cotton.

For two days and nights the insects have fluttered and fiddled about the city, attracted by the bright lights at night and apparently having no place else to go in the daylight. Millions of them flocked to the business section yesterday evening. A restaurant proprietor attacked the crickets with lye water, and their remains lay in a pile an inch deep and two feet wide along the sidewalk.

The softball series in the three-out-of-five games series in the Sunday school Softball League championship between the Centennials and Eskimes will be played at lower Central Park to-morrow evening at 6.15. Centennials won the first game.

Convicts in England decreased in number from 50,000 to 6,000 during the reign of Queen Victoria.
